PEACE PACT PROPOSAL FROM U.S. IS PROGRAM

U. C. Professor Declares Plan for World Propaganda Made With Neutrals to Be Started in America by the Delegates

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE HAS OUTLINED WORK

End of Conflict Is Hope of the Advocates, Who Report Vote Against War in Europe Has Been Suppressed by Leaders

Within two weeks the most important effort yet made in this country for peace in Europe will be laid before the American people and their co-operation solicited, according to the declaration of Professor Arthur U. Pope of the department of philosophy at the University of California. In order that the effort may be concertedly made throughout the United States no definite details of the plan will be told before its general announcement, except that a petition for signatures will be circulated throughout the country.

The development of the plans took definite shape at a conference in Washington early last month of the League for a Conference of Neutral Nations and they have been carefully guarded from that time to now. Professor Pope represented the West at the conference. Jane Addams and other prominent peace advocates were in attendance. The delegates were in conference with President Wilson at a luncheon and held several deliberations besides.

NEUTRALS IN CONCERT.

The American movement is but a portion of the whole effort which is making to bring about a cessation of European hostilities. Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland and other neutral nations of Europe are involved in the plans through their leading citizens and with the semi-official co-operation of their respective governments. In the belligerent nations as well peace parties have lent the plans their cognizance. Karl Liebknecht, the noted German editor, is among those who favor the movement and expect from it important developments.

The League for a Conference of Neutral Nations was formed ostensibly to make certain that this country would have a hand in the conference that will bring the war to a close, and that the other neutral nations will also participate therein in order that the weight of a great body of international opinion may be brought to bear upon the means of settlement of the present difficulties. It was felt by the delegates at Washington that only thus could any definite assurance be had of a lasting European peace.

Professor Pope is optimistic of the success of the plans which developed upon this foundation. He looks for any partial adjustment of Balkans affairs to furnish the incentive toward peace pour parleurs. The league of which he is a member, he declares, has gone about its work scientifically. So far as possible it has kept in close touch with the peace parties in the belligerent countries and finds their number very large.

GERMAN VOTE PEACE.

From one correspondent of the league he has learned that a straw vote on the desire for peace overtures was taken secretly in Germany, both among the citizens at home and the soldiers at the front, and that an immense vote was cast for ending the war. The result of the vote, he declares, was suppressed. In the entente countries, the league has learned, are other concrete evidences of a desire for peace of great magnitude. The league has maintained in addition a military bureau and has kept closely in touch with the military situation throughout its recent phases.

Before the International Radical Club, at its monthly meeting in San Francisco last evening, Professor Pope spoke generally of this new movement for peace, though he refrained from entering into a discussion of the still undivulged details of its operation. He said:

> The neutral countries grouped about the Baltic have in the past few months, in public meetings, in their press, and otherwise, pronounced anathema against the

Many a Slip 'Twixt Licens? Desk and Altar; Seventy-Two Prospective Brides Disappear

Cupid has been playing tricks with Hymen in Alameda county. The little god of love has been leading happy couples almost into the arms of the matrimonial deity and then deserting them. In the past twelve months seventy-two prospective brides have disappeared between the marriage license counter and the altar, no one knows where. But the records in the offices of County Clerk George E. Gross and Recorder G. W. Bacon are proof of the startling discovery.

Out of 2880 marriage licenses issued in the last twelve months only 2808 have been returned for recording as prescribed by law, this allowing for thirty days' delay permitted ministers and magistrates to make return of the certificates.

Marriages must be performed in the county where the license is issued. The certificates are recorded in the county and forwarded to the state bureau at Sacramento for entry and for a tabulation of the vital statistics accompanying the certificate.

What has happened to the six couples each month who, after taking out their license, have apparently gone no further in the consummation of matrimonial intentions?

The question is one of the most perplexing ones that has arisen in the history of marital relations, puzzling both county officials and clergymen who have come in contact with the matrimonial situation.

INSTRUCTIONS ISSUED.

An explanation which might account for a very small percentage of the deficiency might be deduced from a recent instruction sent out by the naturalization department at Washington calling upon officials issuing marriage licenses to be careful to instruct foreigners that the license does not consummate the marriage. Cases have arisen in this county where foreigners believed they had fulfilled their obligations by taking out the license.

But the high average of six couples a month who fail to reach the marriage alter numbers more than all of such foreign licenses issued during that period which could possibly be so classified, the officials believe.

Then there is the remote possibility of neglect on the part of the minister or magistrate performing the ceremony to record the certificate. This chance, however, is a minimum, as the instructions on the documents are plain to the effect that a penalty is attached for failure to record them. The records show that invariably the certificates are returned within the prescribed thirty days. A short time ago a woman called at the recorder's office with a certificate that was made out eighteen years ago and which had never been recorded. That was before it was so well understood by the marrying parties that recording is necessary.

Then there have been known cases wherein licenses were taken out for the purpose of fraud or for imposition on one or the other of the couple. This risk has more recently been reduced through a rule made in the county clerk's office that both parties desiring the license must appear in person at the office.

So the only plausible solution of the mystery involving Cupid with Hymen in the present situation is that one or the other, man or woman, changed their mind between the license desk and the marriage altar.

CHANGED HER MIND?

It is a woman's prerogative anyway to change her mind. So there must be a large number of women eligible to matrimony in Alameda county who have changed their minds during the past year. And "what's the use of a marriage license if you haven't a bride?" runs the merry old song.

HEIR OF FAMOUS PERALTA DONS IS VICTIM OF GAS

Adolph, Poisoned by Fumes, Fails to Rally in Short Fight.

After lingering for a week with his system poisoned with carbon monoxide gas, Adolph Peralta, 32 years of age, a member of the famous Peralta family whose founders were the original holders of the Spanish land grants which Alameda county now embraces, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his mother, 592 Twenty-second street.

According to the police, it has been ascertained that Peralta turned on the gas in his room with suicidal intent a week ago while despondent over personal troubles. He was discovered by his mother in time to prevent his asphyxiation at the time, but he had inhaled such a quantity of the gas that he was badly poisoned.

The authorities are seeking to ascertain why no report of the case was made by Dr. E. M. Clark, who attended the patient. Dr. Clark refuses to make a statement in regard to the affair, declaring that he will discuss the matter only with the officials. An inquest will be held by the coroner tomorrow at nine o'clock.

JAPAN'S PREMIER AND HIS CABINET DECIDE TO RESIGN

Opposition of the Non-elective Branch to Policies of Count Okuma Cause Action.

TOKIO, Oct. 3.—The Nichi Nichi Shimbun, in an extra edition, announces that the cabinet of Premier Count Okuma has decided to resign. The premier is said to have stated that he would recommend to the emperor the appointment of Viscount Takaaki Kato as his successor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Persistent opposition of the Japanese upper non-elective house of parliament to the policies of Premier Okuma is responsible for his resignation, news of which was cabled from Tokio today. This is the belief of the embassy here.

Okuma's party controlled the majority of the lower house, but a coalition of other parties in the upper house was formed against him. It is said Okuma has for some weeks felt unable to continue the government and face the upper house when it convenes in December.

It is understood the premier had been contemplating resigning for some months and has been waiting for a time when he thought he could arrange a successor from his own party. Viscount Kato, former minister of foreign affairs under Okuma and now leader of the latter's party in the lower house, is said to be the candidate of that body and of Okuma for the premiership. Okuma's opponents in the upper house are advocating the appointment of Count Marshal Terauchi, now governor of Korea. Terauchi, with the title of marshal, has the highest rank in the Japanese army.

Count Okuma is 79 years old and has been premier for two and a half years. It is considered likely that his advanced years have something to do with his desire to retire.

REGISTRATION CLOSES ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Registration for the general election of November 7th will close at midnight Saturday. County Clerk George E. Gross announced today that the registration office in the Hall of Records will remain open every night this week between 7 and 10 o'clock and until 12 o'clock Saturday night. Several thousand persons who had not registered for the primary election are not on the great register. It is estimated that the total registration will reach 125,000, the greatest in the history of the county.

MACKENSEN MENACED BY RUMANIANS

Kaimakcalan and the Struma Regions Scenes of Important Victories by Allies; British Are Inflicting Big Losses

Ruman Force of Invasion Now Moving Southward Toward Important Railway Center of Rustchuk-Varna; Russ Strike

ROME, Oct. 3.—A Zurich despatch today asserts that the kaiser had personally appealed to President Wilson to end the war, but that the President had refused to intervene at this time.

LONDON, Oct. 3. — Rumania's stroke against the central powers in throwing a force across the Danube into Bulgaria is the outstanding feature in the current war news.

Should this army prove to be of formidable size, it will constitute a serious menace to Field Marshal von Mackensen's left flank and might easily force his retirement from the present tsouth of Constanza-Tchernavoda Railroad. He also is being subjected to heavy pressure along this line by the Russians and Rumanians, presumably in connection with the flanking operation.

A Rome wireless despatch this afternoon said it was reported from Petrograd that Von Mackensen ordered the evacuation of the Dobrudja fortress of Silistra and Tutrakan after the Rumanians crossed the Danupe.

The latest statement from Sofia minimizes the importance of the Rumanian invasion, mentioning the invading as consisting of several battalions, conveyed across the river in boats between Rustchuk and Turtukai. "Measures have been taken to attack this force," the official bulletin declares.

BRIDGES DESTROYED.

The Berlin war office announced today that Austrian and German monitors had destroyed the pontoon bridges across the Danube in the rear of the Rumanian forces, which had crossed the river and invaded Bulgaria.

Official announcement also was made by Berlin this afternoon that Austro-German troops in Transylvania in the region north of Forgaras had withdrawn before superior Rumanian forces.

In Macedonia, where as elsewhere in the eastern war theater the allies are pressing more presumably to prevent reinforcements being sent by the central powers from one field of activity to another, the tide of battle is fluctuating on both wings.

The Serbians appear to have gained the upper hand in the hilly Kaimkcalan region. Sofia admits a Bulgarian retirement there and the French official report announces a new advance by the Serbians, who have captured first line trenches and taken another Bulgarian battery.

Entente statements declare the Bulgarians were repulsed in the eastern end of the Macedonia nfront, in attacks on British positions east of the Struma. Sofia, however, reports the capture by Bulgarian forces of the villages of Jenikoi and Nevolyen, which the British had taken.

GERMANS COUNTER-ATTACK.

On the Somme front a period of determined counter attacks by the Germans appaer to have set in. They have bene striking back strongly at the British along the Pozieres-Bapaume road, working their way back into the vilage of Eucourt L'Abbaye and today they were reported by Paris to have attempted heavy strokes at the French lines near Rancourt, north of Peronne. They were unable, however, to debouch from the St. Pierre Vast Wood, northeast of Rancourt, Paris declared, being checked by the French curtain of fire and machine guns.

From Petrograd comes the statement that the German forces have taken the offensive south of Dvinsk, attacking the Russian lines in force near Novo Alexandrovsk. They were met by an intense defensive fire from the Russian guns, however, and forced back to their positions, the official statement declares.

Boston Finds Rixey Easy and Is Winner

NATIONAL LEAGUE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—Pat Moran's Phillies slid several notches farther down the pennant pole this afternon when they were defeated by the Boston Braves in the first game to the tune of 6 to 3. The game virtually was decided in the seventh when Boston snatched five runs and battered Eppa Rixey from the mound. He was succeeded by Mayor, Kantlehner and Oeschger in succession. Rudolph pitched for Boston.

First game score:

									R.	H.	E.
Boston	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	1	0	6	11	2
Philadelphia	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	1	0	3	8	4

Batteries—Rudolph and Gowdy; Rixey, Mayer, Kantlehner, Oeschger and Killifer.

Philadelphia Wins in American League

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—Boston pitchers proved easy today in the first game of the double-header against Philadelphia that may determine who will win the American League pennant. The score:

									R.	H.	E.
Boston	0	0	0	1	0	1	1	0	0	3	8	0

Batteries: Philadelphia — Parham, Lindstrom and Schang; Boston—Mays, Foster and Thomas, Agnew.

FALL INJURES LEG.

While cleaning windows in a hotel at 823 Franklin street this morning, Mrs. W. S. Prosser, a chambermaid, sustained a fall which resulted in her left leg being broken. She was treated at the Emergency hospital.

HATE SPIRIT DECRIED BY LORD BRYCE

Former Ambassador at Washington in Address to Congregational Union Advocates League to Restrain War

Indulgence in Revenge Said to Promise Future Wars, When Carried to Extent of Imposing Severe Terms on Foe

BIRMINGHAM, England, Oct. 3.—Viscount Bryce of Dechmont, former ambassador at Washington, addressing the Congregational Union today, decried the spirit of hate against the Germans and the talk of a lasting trade war. In conclusion he advocated a league to restrain aggression and compel arbitration.

"If there is to be a recurrence of war, becoming more terrible with the unceasing advance of science," he said, "we may well despair of the future."

Lord Bryce recalled that Premier Asquith, Lord George Grey and Balfour had expressed energetically and sincerely the need of such machinery and said that several groups of thinkers were working out the plans. Continuing he said:

To establish any machinery for preserving peace would be impossible without the co-operation of the neutral states, especially the greatest of all the neutral states. We have been waiting and watching to see whether America would, in view of the immense interests at stake, depart from her old policy of complete isolation and bear her part in the effort for securing a permanent alliance for peace. An influential league for that purpose has already been formed there, and how two momentous events have happened, on which I shall dwell, because they have been little noticed here.

CITES U. S. ATTITUDE.

President Wilson delivered four months ago a powerful and luminous speech, in which he declared the United States could not stand aloof from a movement in which the highest interests of manhood were concerned and that he felt sure the people of the United States were prepared to join in any feasible scheme for the prevention of future wars.

Two months ago, Charles E. Hughes, in accepting the nomination as candidate for the Presidency by the Republican party, declared with no less force and less sincerity that he was convinced the time had come for America to unite with European countries in a well-considered scheme for applying methods of arbitration and conciliation to securing general and permanent peace in the world.

Thus the heads of the great American parties, distinguished men and the official exponents of American opinion, have promised the co-operation of their nation in this project—one of great difficulty, no doubt, but also of supreme importance.

GAIN FOR NATION.

Our people and the statesmen who lead our people could have no greater encouragement to address themselves, when the time comes, to this enterprise, which they have already pronounced to be necessary. I ask your help to bring the matter before the people and to show them how much each and every nation has to gain by removing the terror and danger of war, which so long has hung like a black cloud over Europe. The churches could do no more truly Christian work.

Let not this war have been fought in vain. Let us search for and try to put into practice some scheme for reducing, and, if possible, at last for ending this oldest and most terrible scourge of mankind.

Lord Bryce said his country virtually was unanimous in holding that the war must be pursued to victory so complete as to open the prospect of an enduring peace, and added:

On the terms of that treaty the people will insist and ought to insist on expressing their opinion and the churches must do their part in helping to form it.

CHURCHES SHOULD WORK.

He declared that the precepts of Christianity coincide with those of political wisdom and that the churches should work for national unity and good feeling between the classes, saying:

Let us avoid, let us repress the spirit of hatred. We are justly indignant at the war the enemy powers have waged. We trust that our victory will warn the world that such methods must never be resorted to again and that those guilty of them will be punished. But is it wise to talk of banning a whole people for all time to come? The German people are under a harsh and tyrannous rule, which has not only deceived and misled them, but silences any protest—and there are those who wish to protest—against its crimes. Some day we hope they will overthrow it, when they have learned the truth.

To indulge in revenge will be to sow the seeds of future wars. Nations cannot hate one another forever, and the sooner they cease to do so, the better for all of them. We must take all proper steps to defend ourselves from any angers that might arise if after the war the enemy countries were to resume an insiduous hostility. That is at present no more than a possibility which may never arise.

BILLINGS' COUNSEL OFFERS TO PROVE TWO PLANTED BOMB

Defense Traces Suspects and Presents Facts to Court in Asking New Trial for Defendant

AFFIDAVITS TELL OF NEW DATA

Oakland Police Advised of Plan of Pair to Kill Officials of United Railway With Suitcase of Dynamite; Was Not Used

Affidavits presented by Attorney Maxwell McNutt in which two men are named as being the real perpetrators of the bomb outrage July 22, have called attention to a clew to the crime which was placed in the hands of the Oakland police on the night following the explosion.

McNutt declared today that the bomb was thrown by two men, a German-American named Schultz, and a Mexican known as the "Spanish Kid." He said they had prepared the infernal machine for Thornwell Mullally and William M. Abbott of the United Railroads, but that they had been drinking and carelessness led to their plans miscarrying.

Two men who had driven an automobile for two foreign speaking strangers on the night of the bomb outrage, told the Oakland police of the mysterious remarks of their passengers, who were under the influence of liquor. They spoke of the bomb in a manner that led the auto drivers to believe that they had committed the crime.

The Oakland police communicated this information to San Francisco, but when the investigation started the scent had grown cold.

McNutt presented his affidavits to Judge Dunne today.

"I believe it was only over-indulgence in liquor or over-anixety on the part of these two men that prevented them from killing their victim, namely, Thornwall Mullally," said McNutt, addressing the court, and afterwards added to the newspaper men, "I am satisfied if they will only give us time we will ourselves get and turn up the men who perpetrated this outrage."

PLEA FOR NEW TRIAL.

McNutt was before the court submitting additional evidence in support of a motion for a new trial for [illegible] convicted of murder in the first degree and facing a sentence of life imprisonment to be given Saturday.

The summary of the evidence contained in the sworn statement he submitted has the effect of placing the responsibility for the bomb throwing upon Adolph Schultz, a German-American, and Tony Jolmas, better known as the "Spanish Kid."

Supporting these charges are the affidavits of Ray W. Ryder, attorney-at-law, of 337 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, who was one of those receiving a threatening postcard by reason of his participation in the preparedness parade plans, and Nell McAuliffe, who formerly resided at 1632 Alcatraz avenue, Berkeley.

TWO ARE NAMED.

McAuliffe's allegations are by far the most important. He claims that he is well acquainted with Schultz and the "Spanish Kid", that he has heard them threaten both Mullally and Abbott; that he saw them on the day of the preparedness parade in a saloon with what they admitted was an infernal machine wrapped in burlap and strapped in with a shawl strap, and that he is satisfied they were the perpetrators of the bomb crime.

In addition to these facts, McNutt believes that within a few days he can produce the actual owner of the suitcase placed at Steuart and Market streets and can show that it did not contain an infernal machine.

REPEATS CONVERSATION.

McAuliffe, continuing, gave some facts connected with conversations with Schultz regarding Carquinez straits and the manner of transporting a heavy load across those waters, tending to indicate that they might have been responsible for the Martinez explosive incidents. He then described a visit to Schultz and the "Spanish Kid" to a house in Richmond, where they were living and where they showed him explosives, and Schultz is alleged to have said: "I have got this thing ready for a couple of big guys, Mullally and Abbott," and that on another occasion they had made threats against Mullally and Abbott, and said they were going to fix them because they were the biggest scabs ever in San Francisco.

McAuliffe said that Schultz had explained that there was a spring and battery attachment to the explosive.

McNutt, by way of explanation, stated that McAuliffe had given all these facts to Captain Duncan Matheson and had stated he believed it was the two men who had caused the preparedness parade explosion. In addition, McAulife had communicated with Detective Swanson of the United Railroads following the blowing up of the towers at San Bruno.

Stripped of its legal verbiage, the statement of McAuliffe is substantially as follows:

"I was looking into a jewelry store on Third street when Adolph Schultz came up and asked me if I had seen the "Spanish Kid." I replied that I had not and we went into the News saloon and he told me he was going to fix a couple of fellows that he had been waiting for a long time. Pretty soon the "Spanish Kid" came in and said he had come here a little late. He put his hand on a package which looked like it had been wrapped in Manila wrapping paper, and one of the men said, 'Don't handle that like that; be careful'; and I said, 'What is it?' and he said 'It's good old Giant, and its intended for Mullally and a couple of more of those ——. I'll see you tonight and if not I will write you from Mexico.' I told him

Girl Offers Her Eye to Soldier

Surgeon Receives Letter of Sacrifice

PARIS, Oct. 3.—A young English girl has written to Dr. Rochon Duvigneaud offering to give one of her eyes to a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. The girl, who lives in North Shields, has read a recent statement by Dr. Duvigneaud, one of the most famous oculists in France, that it was possible to save the sight of a man wounded in the eye by grafting a portion of the cornea of another person. In her letter she said:

"If you believe that there is one chance of success in a million, I will give you one of my eyes for a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. I would prefer to give my eye to one to whom it would be especially useful, such as an inventor or an officer of great value."

Fifty Reported Killed in Car Accident

CLEVELAND, Or., Oct. 3.—Two street cars on the Scranton Railroad line, crowded with passengers at the rush hour, dropped into the Cuyohago river late this afternoon when the West Third street bridge collapsed under them. Police and fire department apparatus and ambulances have been called to the scene.

It is reported that at least fifty have been killd or drownd.

Diver War Renewal Is Facing Defeat

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Efforts of the Von Tirpitz party to force a resumption of submarine warfare will be defeated as the result of the conferences now being held in secret sessions of the Reichstag committee, it is now generally believed.

The Tirpitzites, however, hope to force a public discussion of the whole question when the Reichstag convenes Thursday.

WATER SUIT DISMISSAL IS ORDERED

Action Is Prelude to Final Consummation of Plans for the Reorganization Along Lines As Proposed the Committee

With the dismissal by stipulation of the suit in intervention recently brought by Attorneys Peck, Bunker & Cole on behalf of a small minority of bondholders of the Peoples Water Company, the compromise payment of a $5000 fee to the firm in lieu of $10,000 asked, and the apportionment of other legal fees for trustees and attorneys on a general basis of one-half the amounts legally collectable, the foreclosure suits brought by Oakland and San Francisco trust companies against the water company have been amicably adjusted. Prompt consummation of the plans of the reorganization committee are anticipated as the next step following the handing down of the decree in foreclosure and sale by Judge William H. Waste.

The suit in intervention was filed, according to A. G. Tasheira, vice-president of the Peoples Water Company, by James F. Peck on a technical point, because the Mercantile Trust Company was acting as trustee for the Peoples Water Company and the East Shore Water Company, a subsidiary corporation, at the same time. This double trusteeship was declared to be prejudicial to the interests of the bondholders whom Peck represented.

FRIENDLY CONFERENCE.

The hearing, which took place yesterday, was in the nature of a friendly conference, the contentions of the different factions in the battle over the reorganization of the company having been threshed out before the attorneys appeared in court.

J. B. Lanktree has been appointed commissioner to sell the property, thus gathering the outstanding assets into a unit which will be the basis of further operation of the properties. The re-organization will be under the direction of a committee chosen two years ago by the bondholders. The plans have been approved by the railroad commission. John S. Drum of San Francisco and Joseph F. Carlston of the Central Bank, head the bond holders.

COST REDUCED.

The cost of the preliminary work was practically one-half of one per cent of the total valuation of the company's holdings, an item of $105,000 being allowed in fees by Judge Waste. The testimony showed a valuation of $20,000,000 on the properties. Under the law the fees would have amounted to $200,000, but a compromise was effected whereby those eligible agreed to accept lesser amounts.

The fees were apportioned as follows for the different trustees of the subsidiary companies of the Peoples Water Company:

Fee to the Mercantile Trustee Company as trustee for the Peoples Water Company, $15,800; fee to the Union Trust Company of San Francisco as trustee for the Contra Costa Water Company, $1640; fee to the Union Trust Company as trustee for the Oakland Water Company, $2460; fee to the Union Trust Company as trustee for the Alameda Artesian Water Company, $1000; fee to the Oakland Bank of Savings as trustee for the Contra Costa Water Company, $3280; fee to the Mercantile Trust Company as trustee for the East Shore Water Company, $410; fee to the Anglo California Trust Company as trustee for the East Shore Water Company, $410.

Peace Proposal for U. S. Program, Says Educator

United States because it has not taken definite steps toward peace. "The small neutrals cannot act," has been their sentiment, "alone, but they can act and will do so at once if the one great neutral points the way. Why does it not do so?"

The proposition which the league embodied definitely at Washington is not sentimental, impractical or chimerical. The league has gone about its business systematically and with the constant collateral effort of keeping itself accurately informed of European conditions as well as of the peace sentiment in the belligerent countries. It finds this not only great but growing. In every one of the nations at war the peace party has assumed immense dimensions. Liebknecht and his followers in Germany are legion. In France, Rolland can no longer stay in Paris because of his anti-war attitude and he has a tremendous following in secret throughout the country. In England the elements desiring peace and planning for it are growing by great strides daily.

The opportune time seems to us to have arrived, and we believe that when the American people know how sanely and definitely we have planned, they will be with us. It will take but little effort on the part of the American people, but if the effort were even great, it ought to be made. The horrors of this war are so great that halting it for even an hour, if that were possible, would be worth a year's effort for every American citizen.

There is no politics connected with this movement. It is not intended to aid President Wilson to re-election or keep him from it. Among the members of the league are a number who are devoting their energy and giving of their funds to assure the election of Mr. Hughes. On the other hand, there are many others who are friends of President Wilson, some even who doubt from a tactical standpoint the wisdom of his having any hand in the matter at all. Nor are we assured that he will have. President Wilson is persona non grata with many of the nations at war. With how good grace they would accept any overtures he might make it is doubtful to determine.

But, far outside of any political consideration, the league is progressing with its plans and will, within the next week or two, lay them before the American people. It would hardly be to this country's credit if, twenty-five years from now, it could be written of us that we turned aside when the chance presented for terminating this terrible holocaust, to settle a matter of politics.

ELECT ROBINSON NEW BOARD HEAD

Port Commission Holds First Meeting and Names Officers.

Harrison S. Robinson, former president of the Oakland civil service board, was last night elected president of the newly appointed port commission. A. S. Lavenson was named vice-president.

The commission will hold a conference with Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson in the near future. It will have general advisory and semi-directive functions with regard to the harbor work in the harbor department.

Mayor Davie named the port commission September 19. His action came as a surprise to Commissioner Anderson, who had not been present at the conference on harbor matters and the settlement of the Oakland estuary lease tangle the preceding night.

WILLCOX CHARGE IS CALLED 'ABUSE'

Postmaster Says Sending of "Wilson Manual" Is Not Illegal.

Charges that the Democratic National Committee is violating the law by sending out copies of the "Wilson Workers' Manual" to the postmasters of the country in an effort to line them up as campaign workers for the administration, were smilingly referred to this morning by Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough as "campaign abuse." He said:

I may have received one of those pamphlets, and if I did, I threw it into the waste-basket. I pay no attention to such things as that.

The charge made by Chairman William R. Willcox of the Republican National Committee that these pamphlets are being sent out to the postmasters in deliberate violation of the law in an attempt to influence federal employees is only one of the varieties of abuse that are characterizing the present campaign.

I am administering the duties of my office without regard to political lines or partisan feelings.

The pamphlet which has aroused the comment is issued "with the compliments of the Democratic National Committee Organization Bureau." It is entitled "Wilson Workers' Manual" and is rubber-stamped: "Sample—additional copies on request." According to Willcox it has been sent out to postmasters in envelopes with the word "Postmaster" printed thereon and the name of the office added in typewriting. Willcox said:

This is evidence of direct effort to procure violation of the law by federal employees for the benefit of the Democratic national ticket. I do not deem it proper to direct special circulars to civil service employees, and that has not been done by this committee. The action taken by the Democratic National Committee organization is directly contrary to the spirit of civil service, and ought to be condemned by all right-thinking persons.

that they better quit drinking and cut out the rough stuff.

"I met both men in the latter part of April at Giant. Schultz was working in the pipe-fitting plant and one day he said, 'Wait a minute,' when I was leaving, and he showed me under his coat four sticks of Giant. He said, 'It's the easiest thing in the world to get stuff out of here, and when I get ready I am going down to the city and make some of those wallopers sit up and take notice.' I said, 'You have enough stuff there to blow up twenty men,' and he said, 'I have enough to get a couple of them anyway.'"

McNutt added that he believed that Schultz, who had a cast in his eye and a scar, was the man for whom Billings was taken and that the Spanish-looking man had resembled Mooney.

The affidavit of Attorney Ryder of Alameda was to the effect that following his receipt on July 14 of a postal card telling him that he was marked for immediate extermination and signed by the Employees Liberty League, he had become disturbed and on July 16 had gone into the smoking car on the Alameda train and had noticed a man whose description fitted closely that of the Spanish Kid and who gazed furtively about and carried a leatherette suitcase. He watched him for a while and was startled to notice him again on the boat when he came out of the lavatory wearing a black mustache, whereas on the train he had been smooth shaven.

CLAIMS RE-ELECTION.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine unofficially claimed this morning that he had been re-elected, as a result of the recount of primary election ballots.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove Poisons From Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if Cross, Bilious or Feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

Actress Tells Secret

A Well-Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair With a Simple Home-Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half-pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, and relieves itching and dandruff."—Advertisement.

Demonstration Sale

We Give S. H. Green Stamps

MARYMONT AND UPRIGHT
13th and Washington, Oakland

An event planned to show how successful we have been in fighting against high-soaring prices on Fall and Winter merchandise. The prices we quote have already been approved by thousands of customers.

Every department in the store is taking an enthusiastic part in this Value Demonstration. Not all of the good features are advertised. See the special displays when you are in the store. Come Wednesday if you can.

38-in. Lawn 7c yd

Mill ends in practical lengths. Note the width—38 inches. Dot, stripe and floral patterns in various colors on white and tinted grounds. Not many pieces left—hurry! Come Wednesday—not later.

30-inch Plisse Crepe 15c yard

Shown for the first time on Wednesday. That famous crinkled fabric which requires no ironing—a fine, even weave, white only. Don't forget the width—30 inches.

Sunfast 25c yd

They are mill ends but can be cut into nearly any practical length. A high-grade 36-inch American Sunfast, made to sell at a much higher price. Good patterns and colors—old rose, green, brown, etc.

Figured Silkoline 9c a yard

36 inches wide. The proper thing for inexpensive draperies and comforter coverings. Good range of figured patterns—the colors you want. Other silkolines at 15c a yard.

Downstairs Salesroom Takes an Active Part

Thousands of dollars' worth of "Home" merchandise is being offered at appealing prices during this Demonstration. We mention a few of the features today:

$1.00 Silks!

Perhaps you had concluded that $1.00 Silks are a thing of the past, but here they are in splendid variety. This is one of the greatest features of the Demonstration Sale.

36-Inch Black Messaline $1.00 Yard—A high-class fabric. About 500 yards at this price—wish we had ten times as much.

36-Inch Chiffon Taffeta $1.00 Yard—A splendid quality in navy, king's blue, Copenhagen, light blue, apricot, African brown, tan, Nile green, prune, wisteria, mais, orchid, lavender, old rose and black.

36-Inch Crepe de Chine $1.00 Yard—Pure silk, every thread. The color list includes light blue, apricot, Nile green, African brown, lavender, ciel, white and black.

Embroideries

Thousands and Thousands of Yards

The sale started with 65,000 yards on hand. We made a purchase big enough to command the lowest prices. As a result you get embroidery bargains that have never been surpassed.

4c - 6c - 8c yard

Wonderful does not express this opportunity. Nothing but wide flouncings—22-inch Allovers, 27-inch Nainsook and Swiss flouncings, some with lace edges, some baby patterns, some ruffled, some hemstitched; 18-inch Voile flouncings, too. All great values at 29c a yard.

29c yard

A superb collection of the most desirable Embroideries—the daintiest kind of patterns on swiss, cambric, nainsook and lawns. Some with colored edges. The widths range from 1 to 10 inches. Equally good selection of edges, insertions and headings.

Lace Curtains 75c pr.

Just think of it! Only 75c a pair for fine Nottingham Lace Curtains that are standard length and from 45 to 50 inches wide. Choice of white or Arabian—twenty patterns to select from. Don't overlook this great special.

Fourth Floor.

Mill Ends of Outing Flannel 5c yd

Being mill-ends has no effect on the quality, but it lowers the price. The lengths are practical for any common use. The width is 27 inches. Good patterns—blue and pink stripe effects on light and medium grounds.

—Downstairs Salesroom

Vicuna Flannel (27-inch) 10c yd

A wonderfully popular material—fleeced on one side and twilled on the other. There's a wonderful color and pattern assortment. Selection will be easy.

Kimona Flannel (27-inch) 15c yd

A soft, fleecy and very serviceable fabric woven especially for kimonos. New floral and conventional designs to select from—new colors, too. Special at 15c yard.

WAS MANIA FEIGNED TO GUARD WIFE?

Dr. Duval, Taken Back to the Stockton Asylum, a Modern Hamlet, Declares Woman in Story; Madness Is Pretended

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—Hamlet's most real protagonist has appeared in the person of Dr. Clovis H. Duval according to the statements which Mrs. Duval, formerly Winifred Sims, made today. Like the melancholy Dane, she declares he feigned insanity to gain his ends, and that one of these ends was to keep her from being arrested for complicity in a check which he had signed and for which he was threatened with prosecution. Rays of purest romance streak through the tale which the wife of the physician now carried back to the asylum at Stockton from which he had escaped, had to tell today.

Mrs. Duval is making her home in this city with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Haight on Haste street. Haight in his legal capacity formed the acquaintance of Dr. Duval before the latter's incarceration and an intimacy thus originated between the two families.

That his marriage to her alienated from him the friendship of his family because of religious differences; that his escape from the asylum was dictated by his affection for her; that their second marriage was performed because the border warfare with Mexico had swept out of existance the records of the first, and that to save her from disgrace in connection with the forged check, he decided to feign insanity are details of the story Mrs. Duval has to tell. Her husband is really a graduate physician, she declares, and comes from a wealthy family, the identity of which she still refused to divulge. He has relatives both in San Francisco and Southern California who are persons of prominence, she adds. Continuing Mrs. Duval says:

WIFE'S STORY.

I met Dr. Duval about six years ago and we conceived for each other immediately a strong attachment. Five years and a half ago we were married in a small town in Mexico, just across the border from El Paso, by a Mormon minister. Religious beliefs held by his family led him to look upon our marriage as imperfect and alienated them from us. Later, when the difficulties between this country and Mexico occurred, the records, so far as we ever could find trace of them, were destroyed. For this reason and in order to re-establish himself with his family, Dr. Duval married me again more recently in Stockton with both a civil and religious ceremony.

It was functional angina pectoris and the suffering he endured therefrom, that led my husband to the use of morphine to dull the pain. He never indulged in it to a great extent, a grain and a half a day being as large a dose as he ever took. He could have signed his own prescriptions for the drug but refrained always from doing so, securing each time a prescription from another physician.

CHECK IS CAUSE.

We should have had none of the difficulties attaching to us recently if it had not been for the check which my husband signed in all good faith, on which he obtained $1200 from W. H. Nichols of Berkeley, and which, finally, the estate upon which he had a right to depend refused to honor. Not only was he threatened with arrest but I was, too, and this fact worried him more than did his own danger. Finally he conceived the plan of feigning insanity. He said to me one day:

"I cannot bear the idea of your being involved in this trouble and I know how to get both you and me out of it. They already know that I use drugs and they will be quite willing to believe that the drug has made me insane. Well, I'm going to let them think so. I'm going to be insane. They cannot throw an insane man into prison and certainly they cannot hold you responsible if your insane husband has a bad check against him."

He carried that resolve into effect. He was arrested, charged with insanity and committed to the asylum at Stockton. It was his continuing affection for me and his overwhelming desire to be with me again that led him to effect his escape from that institution and go with me to San Francisco. His right name is Clovis H. Duval, not Ebstein, and I am Mrs. Duval.

One Deaf Ear Is No Defense

Attorney Tells Court of Many Who Hear

All the men in Oakland who are deaf in one ear were enumerated before Judge W. H. Donahue in the Superior Court today, when Charles E. Snook, attorney, sought to prove that a man with only one good ear could hear. Snook declared that Judge Frank G. Ostrander, A. J. Mount, a banker, and half a dozen other prominent Oakland business men could hear perfectly well with one ear and that therefore it was impossible that R. B. Mott, an Alameda stock broker, could not.

The suit was one brought by Mrs. Julia B. Kirk against S. E. Biddle and others, involving a stock transaction in Fidelity Loan and Mortgage Company proceedings. It was testified that Mott had not heard some of the facts in connection with the company at the time he sold stock in it.

"If Judge Ostrander can come into court and hear everything, and Mr. Mount in the bank can hear everything, and they both have bad ears, I think Mr. Mott could hear all right," declared Snook.

The case was continued for further evidence.

SIRENS TO SIGNAL ANY 'AIDA' CHANGE

Opera Will Be Sung Tonight at Ewing Field or in Civic Auditorium.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—With the oldest insurance company in the world in the role of impresario, "Aida" will be presented tonight, rain or shine. If it is clear, the production will be, as originally planned, in Ewing Field. If it rains, the opera will be presented at the Municipal Auditorium.

Lloyd's, the big insurance firm, is behind it. Local representatives were instructed today to do as their judgment dictated. They say that if they collect the money they paid on the policy, taken by the old management against the rain, the rest of the funds will go to charity. The insurance company pays the expenses for the performance tonight.

San Francisco will know, by the city's sirens, where the opera will be held. If the weather is doubtful, and it is decided to hold the show at the Auditorium, all the sirens in the city will blow continuously from 6 to 7 o'clock. If the weather is clear there will be no noise signals. A battery of motor trucks is in waiting to transport the seats and other effects from Ewing Field to the Auditorium at a moment's notice. If clouds appear on the horizon tonight the Auditorium will be the scene of the monster production.

YOUTH'S WILL BENEFIT.

Under the plan proposed by Lloyd's, and accepted by the management of the affair, the Youth's Directory will receive all the profits from the performance, as was originally planned. Any deficit must be borne by Lloyd's.

Rev. D. O. Crowley, head of the Youth's Directory, has appealed to all San Francisco people to distribute their tickets among their friends, in case they can not use them themselves. The turning in of tickets would cause the management much extra work and expense.

If, by any chance, rain should appear after the performance has started in Ewing Field, it is probable that two performances will be given, as it is arranged to transport the production to the Auditorium at any time. This project, however, is a tentative one. It is proposed by Madame Johanna Gadski, and is declared to be entirely practical by the management—so much so that 100 motor trucks have been ordered, that the plan could be put into instant execution. These trucks will be in readiness throughout today and tonight.

GADSKI IS WILLING.

When it was suggested that the performance be given in the Exposition Auditorium in case of rain, the question arose whether the building would seat all those who desired admittance. When told of this, Madame Gadski suggested that two performances be given, and signified that she and the others of the cast were willing.

COIN WILL REPAIR WALLS OF MISSION

Orpheum Benefit Under the Auspices of Natives to Be Big Event.

On Monday evening, October 9, an opportunity will be afforded the people of this county to assist in preserving the most important and oldest historic landmark in the east bay region. The adobe walls of Mission San Jose were rapidly crumbling and had it not been for the efforts of the Native Sons and Daughters of Alameda county the ancient structure would today probably be in a state of almost complete ruin.

Five years of constant and untiring effort has resulted in the erection of a new roof, one-half of which is tiled, and strengthening of the adobe walls. Concrete foundations were laid for the roof supports.

It is hoped to raise an amount sufficient to complete the ends of the building, which were temporarily boarded up, and to retile the corridor. Tickets can be purchased at the stores of Sherman-Clay and Kohler & Chase, and from the various parlors. The Orpheum winter rates begin Sunday and these rates will prevail Monday night. During the evening's program the progress of the work will be shown by lantern slides.

The following committee has the affair in charge: E. F. Garrison, Mrs. Jennie Jordan, A. I. Behneiman, Mrs. Nellie DeBlois, C. F. Corrigan, James Beaty, Mrs. C. H. Hall, W. W. Schuhaw and J. J. Dignan. Past Grand President Jos. R. Knowland is chairman of the general committee, and Geo. Donovan secretary.

End of Storm Is Passing Over Bay

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The bay cities and the fringe of coast from Monterey northward, were the only sections of California to escape the rain which fell yesterday, last night and early this morning. The storm is passing but a section of its tail still remains in the vicinity and the forecast is for a possible shower or two today and tonight. It is believed that by tomorrow the disturbance will have disappeared from this neighborhood and fair conditions are looked for.

PACKING PLANT BURNS.

OMAHA, Oct. 3.—Fire in the Morris Company packing plant, entirely gutted that structure, entailing a loss estimated at $750,000. The loss is covered by insurance, according to local officials of the company. The offices, the fertiliber and beef killing plans were the only departments saved. The fire threatened the Armour plant, which is 75 feet east of the Morris building. Cattle and hog sheds of the stockyards also were in danger.

Tries to Drown Fly; Gets Him Into Court

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—Various are the excuses of the bibulous, but William Turner presented one of the most novel reasons heard in the Western Police Court in some time.

"A fly flew right into my mouth, your honor," said Turner to Justice Dawkins, "and cough as I did that little pest remained right where it was. Then a friend came along and he suggested a drop of whisky, saying the liquid would kill the insect.

"I drank five or six liquors before that bug died. Then I got a bit dizzy and I guess that is why I raised so much disturbance."

The dreaded, old fashioned winter is changed into a season of enjoyment for those whose homes are protected from cold winds, dampness, and bitter blizzards by

AMERICAN RADIATORS & IDEAL BOILERS

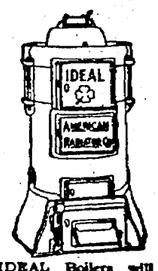

Mother and children can now enjoy the use of every square foot of the entire house, even to the cozy window seats—for IDEAL heating makes every room free from drafts and as mildly warm as a June evening. Absence of colds and other ills is also noticed where this health-protecting heat is used. Father also finds Winter with IDEAL heating is not the bug-bear it used to be with old wasteful methods. Easy to run the IDEAL Boiler with its automatic regulation. Coal-pile lasts 25% longer.

A No. 4-22-W IDEAL Boiler and 422 ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators costing the owner $215 were used to heat this cottage. At this price the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent Fitter. This did not include cost of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which vary according to climatic and other conditions.

A lifetime of lowest cost heating!

IDEAL Boilers will burn any hard coal, soft coal, screenings, lignite, wood, oil or gas and will hold a coal fire without refeeding from 16 to 24 hours in chilly weather. All doors are machined perfectly tight, thus producing perfect conditions for good draft and sensitive control. This prevents needless and wasteful burning of fuel. IDEAL heating can be put into any kind of a building, large or small, old or new, in city or country.

Phone, call or write today for free copy of valuable book, "Ideal Heating," fully illustrated, giving the whole story of the heat that costs least.

IDEAL Boilers will supply ample heat on one charging of coal for 8 to 24 hours, depending on severity of weather. Every ounce of fuel is made to yield utmost results.

Built-in, Vacuum Cleaner—iron suction pipe runs to each floor
We also make the ARCO WAND Vacuum Cleaner, connected by an iron suction pipe, to various floors of house, flat, school, church, hotel, etc. No dragging around a clumsy, inefficient, portable cleaner—instead, you have a practical outfit that is part of the building—like radiator heating. FRITZ HITS TOMMY IN WORDY WAR

Success, British and Seraphis, Teuton, Side by Side, Have Enemy Crews, But Only Unkind Remarks Are Reported

Hanlon As Neutral Seeks to Propose Peace Terms to Men While Dock Employees Wait for the Real Hostile Clash

Trench warfare at the battles of the Somme and the Marne records no such close proximity of the opposing armies as that of Teuton and British force which face each other across a strip of narrow no-man's land on Oakland estuary. The British are firmly entrenched behind the bulwarks of the sturdy old ship Success, while twenty feet distant, at Dan Hanlon's shipyards in East Oakland, the Germans are "dug-in" on the German steamer Seraphis, of the Cosmos line.

Across the short space separating the "trenches" Hans and Fritz and Tommy and Jock exchange a rapid fire of verbal shrapnel and high explosive. Guttural heavy artillery has attempted to silence the maxim-gun fire of the sharper tongued Tommies, but in vain. The mutual bombardment goes on without cessation.

QUICK FINE WORDS.

Worsted in an exchange of quick-fire repartee with a burly Teuton, a British Tommy, constituting the right wing of the Success army, flung an effective bomb as a rejoinder to the effect that "sticks and stones will break my bones, but names will never hurt me.'

While the result of the wordy battle between Teuton and Britisher hangs in doubt, and the noise of conflict is almost sufficient to drown the rattle of pneumatic hammers, the waterfront habitues are gathered round the scene of strife in the capacities of war correspondents or foreign attaches to the rival armies.

There are two strange factors to the wordy warfare. The armies have no leaders. Captain Nottingham of the Success and Captain Catosi of the Seraphis have stood aloof from the scrap and are even said to be on quite friendly terms. Also there are distinct signs of disaffection on the part of both armies, which, during previous off-duty, have been seen to fraternise in the most unbecoming manner for combatants.

HANLON WAITS.

In the meantime Dan Hanlon is awaiting a favorable opportunity as a neutral to bring about peace. The Success is undergoing repairs at the Hanlon yards and the Seraphis, which was interned at the commencement of the European war, is laid up there, close to the British vessel. The inevitable exchange of opinion between the two crews in regard to the war, followed as a matter of course.

Tells Police of Loss of Watches

Joseph Horner, 331 Fifth street, had two gold watches when he met a strange man and woman in a local cafe last night. He told the police after he had left them that they had taken the two watches with them when they parted with him. Horner has given the police a good description of the pair.

Colonel Harry Hamden of Boulder Creek visited friends in Oakland last night, and stopped at 1586 Seventh street. Burglars escaped with his bag and its contents and took his overcoat, he told the police today. Gustave Dieke told the police that someone broke open a telephone box in an apartment house at 2306 East Fourteenth street last night, and stole the contents.

Railroad Reports on Operation Costs

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—The annual report of the St. Louis Southwestern railroad, made public today, shows operating revenues for the fiscal year 1916 of $12,324,000, an increase of $1,590,000 over the preceding year; operating expenses of $8,406,000 and a net revenue from operation of $3,-817,000. This was a gain of $-,551,000.

Lewis Meeting Picketed by Women Dodge Police and Pass Handbills

MISS DORIS STEVENS, commanding officer of silent protestants, who hovered over J. Ham Lewis meeting last night.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—A mild imitation of London bobbies and militant suffragettes of the ante-bellum days was afforded to amused spectators last night at Dreamland Rink when five members of the National Woman's party picketed the meeting of Senator James Hamilton Lewis and registered their voiceless protests against President Wilson and the Democratic administration. There were several near-arrests by the policemen stationed at the door and the dignity of the city ordinance against the distribution of handbills was considerably shaken.

Beribboned as marshals for a Fourth of July parade, Mrs. Elizabeth Gerberding, Miss Bertha Crone, Miss Mildred Gilbert and Mrs. W. B. Broadwell stationed themselves as sentinels before the enemy's citadel long before the audience began to assemble. They were joined later by Miss Doris Stevens, the campaign manager for California, who assumed command of the squad. They had a large banner upon which was emblazoned a message to voters to cast their ballots against Wilson, Patton and all the anathematized Democratic nominees. They also had ammunition in the shape of thousands of handbills.

It was to prevent the use of this literary shrapnel that three policemen were kept busy for three-quarters of an hour. As soon as the crowd began to gather the printed leaflets mysteriously found their way from the hands of the picketers to the hands of the populace. It was a demonstration of the prestidigitator's boast that the hand is quicker than the eye. The policemen often could not see the actual transfer, but they noticed the results.

Then the good-natured conflict began. The police were determined that the sacred ordinance should be obeyed in letter as well as in spirit—the women were determined to distribute the handbills. Miss Bertha Crone particularly was insistent upon the work. She dodged in and out among the crowd and the handbills slipped from her grasp every now and then. One officer was kept busy following in her wake, but he could not make her stop. Finally she was cornered by all three guardians of the law and informed that one more handbill distributed would mean a ride to the city prison. Mrs. Gerberding was kept busy at the telephone trying to obtain permission from Chief White to scatter the seeds of thought among the crewd, but she was unsuccessful.

Senator Lewis had a capacity audience inside the rink. He said that there are no issues in the campaign except the one raised by the Republicans—"They're in, and we want to get in; vote them out." He challenged the Republican leaders to announce to the voters that they would repeal one legislative act of the present administration. The first mention of President Wilson's name brought applause.

'DRY' VOTE CUT BY REASSIGNMENTS

Methodist Pastors Lose Vote in Taking Up New Duties.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The changes in Methodist pastors of northern California, following the new assignments made at the conference at Santa Cruz last month, will have considerable effect on the coming wet and dry vote. All the ministers and their families who were given new assignments will lose their votes at the November election as none of the changes of residence went into effect early enough to permit of the ministers, their wives and sons and daughters living at home to get registered in their new locations in time to cast a ballot in November. In Alameda there are two new Methodist pastors, together with their families. None of these votes will be eligible for the forthcoming election.

The conference assignments probably resulted in a half-hundred ministers being sent to new pastorates. Double the number of ministers changed by an equal number of wives and add in a few votes for the other members of the ministerial families who would be otherwise eligible to vote and it can be seen that the dry vote will be decreased by a noticeable margin through the changes ordered by the conference.

Eureka Entertains I. O. O. F. Delegates

EUREKA, Oct. 3.—Eureka today was in the hands of the plumed hosts of the Odd Fellows. The opening exercises of the Grand Encampment began this morning with hundreds of Odd Fellows, from all parts of the state, in attendance, and simultaneously the Rebekahs opened their convention.

The Patriarchs Militant arrived in special trains last night and yesterday saw a number of social affairs which were continued until late in the evening for the visitors.

The annual flag raising exercises were carried on by the Grand Lodge, and a parade, in which school children marched with the lodge men, was one of the features. Auto rides, dances and other entertainments are being planned for the visitors.

Big Fund Raised by Jewish Relief, Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—During the past two years the sum of $6,000,000 for the relief of Jews in countries affected by the war has been raised and distributed by the joint distribution committee, representing the American Jewish relief committee, the Central relief committee and the People's relief committee, according to an announcement last night. Of this amount of the principal sums were distributed as follows:

Russia, $1,800,000; German Poland, $1,464,500; Austria-Hungary, including Galicia, $1,065,000, and Palestine, $400,000.

New Law Planned to Control Fish Sales

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Harris Weinstock, state market director, will ask for more stringent legislation regarding the fish industry of California when the next legislature assembles. His proposed law will provide:

Fish dealers in good standing will be licensed to do business. All must contribute to a publicity fund. The market director to have power to conduct the Fish Exchange for the benefit of the people.

This policy has been adopted because A. Paladini, one of the largest fish dealers in California, has refused to pay his pro rata for the publicity which the fish business has received throughout the state.

Bear Sits on Track; Fur Scraps Tell Tale

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 3.—Right of way on the main line of the Western Pacific railway has been disputed near Pulga, Plumas county, by a large black bear which calmly seated himself in the path of a speeding passenger train. Fragments of furry hide on the driving wheels and cowcatcher of the engine bore mute testimony that it had won the debate when the train reached Pulga.

Newspaper Man Is Heard by Bureau

Harry Carr, assistant managing editor of the Los Angeles Times, was the speaker today before the Advertising Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce at their luncheon at the Commercial Club Grill. He spoke on modern advertising methods and the conditions in Los Angeles, political and economic. Louis Aber presided at the meeting. The entertainment feature was the appearance of Harry Colman, a ventriloquist, who made a speech through his "dummy" on advertising methods in theaterdom.

Head of Soap Works Will Inspect Factory

SQUAD MEN ARE SWITCHED BY CHIEF

Chinatown Detail Is Subject of Upper Office Bomb in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Chief of Police D. A. White sprung a sensation in police chambers this morning when he summarily removed the present Chinatown squad, reduced to the ranks Detective Sergeant Harry Cook, nephew of Police Commissioner Jesse B. Cook and sent back to the street two detective officers who had been on duty with him in the original quarter. Detective Sergeant Cook is always supposed to have held his place in the upper office by reason of his relationship with the police commissioner. Several times his name has been on a list of those to be sent back to uniformed patrol duty but on every occasion there has been an erasure due, it is said, to outside influence.

On August 1 Cook was placed in charge of the Chinatown squad. He followed Detective Sergeant Andrew Goughran who suppressed all gambling and lotteries. Since Cook has been in Chinatown there have been few arrests and the bomb shell exploded today by the chief was not unexpected. Cook was not only reduced to the rank of patrolman but was sent to butcher town. Detectives Charles Jenkins and Peter Nielsen, whom Cook chose as his chief aids were banished also from the upper office to companies C and J respectively.

The other members of the Chinatown squad return to their former posts.

The new head of the squad is Detective Sergeant John J. Manion and the new detective sergeant replacing Cook is Charles A. Maher who is to be placed in charge of the new card index system in the upper office.

Minors Are Charged With Grand Larceny

Clarence Brooks and Victor Rubonovich, each 16 years old, told Police Judge Mortimer Smith today that they had stolen an automobile in order to make their escape from the home of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society in San Francisco. They were certified to the juvenile court for trial. The two boys said that they made their way to Oakland and took a car belonging to B. F. Taylor. It was while they were driving away with it that the police caught them.

They are charged with grand larceny.

LABORER DROPS DEAD.

Charles Rose, a laborer, dropped dead at his home, 5204 East Tenth street, last evening. Dr. J. Hamilton, who was called, said death was due to heart trouble caused by blood poisoning in the left arm. The injured arm had been neglected. Rose is survived by a widow.

Newo Newi New Is Incorporated

'Bishop' Facing Prison in Full Control

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 20. — Although Rev. N. N. New, head of the so-called Newthot Church, faces a prison term on conviction in the United States District Court at San Francisco for using the United States mails to defraud, he has incorporated his church. There was filed by him today in the office of the Secretary of State articles of incorporation for the World Order of The Newthot Church.

New is bishop of the church and under the articles and rules filed, he is in absolute control, having power over all the churches, properties and even to the naming of his own successor.

Incorporation was decided at a meeting in San Francisco, September 26. There were present besides "Bishop" New, Dr. E. K. Burger, pastor of the First Newthot church in San Francisco, and Dr. J. E. Marston-Dodson, pastor of the First Newthot church in Los Angeles.

According to the articles there are 70 churches included under the power of New. He is the "spiritual head bishop" of them all, and he is president ex-officio of the "World Order of Life." He will have perpetual management of the church.

So complete is his power that it is provided that he shall have "full power of the initiative, referendum and recall."

ARCHITECTS SHOW WORK IN DISPLAY

Following the inspection by several hundred invited guests of the big display of architectural work of the bay region, the first annual exhibition of the Alameda County Architectural Society was thrown open to the public today.

The exhibit, being shown at the Municipal Auditorium, is declared to be one of the most comprehensive displays of its kind ever seen in the bay region. The work of many famous architects, and the details of many noted buildings of the west are to be seen. Many of the new plans for local architects are shown in detail. Leading architects from all parts of the Pacific coast, as well as local men, are displaying plans and drawings for various types of building.

The plans range all the way from original bungalows to churches, office buildings, theaters and auditoriums. A number of striking scale models are among the exhibits, some of these being of well known Oakland residences. Uses of building materials are shown in detailed exhibits and various decoration methods, exterior and interior, are gone into.

The exhibit will be open daily from 18 o'clock in the morning to 10 o'clock in the evening.

AXE MURDERS ARE CAUSE OF LAWSUIT

Accused of Financing Famous Crime, State Senator Asks $25,000 Damages.

VILLISCA, Ia., Oct. 3. — Notices have been served in a $25,000 civil suit for damages by State Senator F. F. Jones, alleging that Burns Detective J. N. Wilkerson and eight local prominent citizens, including a Presbyterian minister, conspired to injure him in charging that he inspired and financed the famous axe murders of eight persons June 9, 1912, in the home of Joe Moore, a business competitor.

Wilkerson failed to fasten the crimes on William Mansfield, arrested in Kansas City several months ago. The detective then held public mass meetings in Montgomery county to raise funds to continue the investigation. Jones stated in his complaint that Wilkerson and his associates openly mentioned Jones' name as having caused the murders.

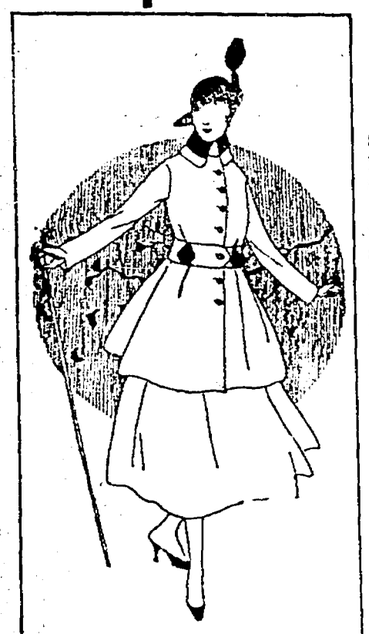

MOTHER LOVE AIDS SON IN TRENCHES

It Brings Relief To Boy Standing His Watch Deep In Mud.

Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rains soaked him to the skin, the mud was deep. He had had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.

LARGEST CONCERN OF ITS KIND WEST OF CHICAGO

EDUCATORS APPORTION $1,772,946

City Schools to cost Near Two Millions During New Fiscal Year; Distributed to All the Departments and Grades

Construction Allowed $1,211,-251; Kindergartens, $39,-118.21; Bill of Clerk Is Rejected Because Funds Low

It will cost exactly $1,772,946.18 to run Oakland's school department this fiscal year, according to the fund apportionments arranged and adopted by the Board of Education last evening. Of this amount, $1,167,569.55 will be spent in the elementary schools, $547,719.08 represents the high school appropriation, and $57,657.55 is to go to the kindergartens.

The department expenses of general control will be $29,325.50 for the year, in the elementary school fund. The expenses of instruction in the elementary schools will be $866,141.79 and $345,109.35 in the high schools. The sum to be spent in kindergarten education amounts to $39,118.21. The expenses of operation of the school plant will be $89,075.29 in the elementary department and $84,441.72 in the high schools. The expenses of maintenance of school plant follows: Elementary, $97,991.52; high school, $68,436.10; kindergarten, $5001.10. Expense of auxiliary agencies in the elementary schools total $29,946.44, and in the high schools $15,745. Miscellaneous expenses are: Elementary, $10,259.58, and high school, $1600.

William Quinlan, chief clerk in the city department of streets, appeared before the board last evening and demanded payment of $476 in engineering fees owed by the educational department to the engineering division of the city for work done last year. Director Harry Boyle told Quinlan that the city council had not given the Board of Education sufficient money with which to pay such bills.

Says Public Asks Sermons on Disc

Rev. Johnston Quits Pulpit to "Fight"

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3.—Rev. Mercer Green Johnston, who resigned the pastorate of Holy Trinity church, Newark, N. J., rather than preach to please the sinners, was to arrive here today "to organize a fellowship of clergy who shall fight for freedom and preach the gospel of social righteousness."

"My vestrymen wanted me to run my church like a grocery store—to please the customers," said Rev. Mr. Johnston, "and I couldn't quite do it. I turned loose some real religion. The church wanted the conventional and it objected. I imagine this element in the vestry represents the real desire of the congregation—for 'brilliant piffle,' as I have heard it described. A phonograph and a few well-chosen records could deliver the kind of religion they want. Then, too, one can control a phonograph with a touch of the hand."

The idea of preaching "straight-from-the-shoulder religion" came to Rev. Mr. Johnston prior to 1914, when he, with Richard Wallace Hogue, Rev. A. W. Arundel of St. George, New York, and a dozen others, deliberately planned to preach twentieth century religion from the Episcopal pulpit and take what consequences were coming. Mr. Hogue left his church and Dr. Arundel resigned from Trinity, Pittsburg, in 1913.

Rev. Johnston will be associated with Hogue in his work in Baltimore. It is possible that he may have another parish, but only on a warm invitation from all members and with the frank understanding that he will speak his thoughts without limitation from the church members.

POET WILL READ.

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—Large attendance is expected this evening at the Hotel Shattuck at the recital in which Charles Keeler, the Berkeley poet, who recently returned from a long sojourn in New York, and Miss Zhay Clark, harpist, are to participate. Keeler is to read several poems from his own works and Miss Clark will present two groups of harp numbers.

NATIONAL GUARD UNITS PLANNED

Engineer and Aviation Corps to Be Added to Local Companies.

Recruiting for the first aviation corps of the National Guard of California has been progressing steadily since the first announcement made several weeks ago by Captain Joseph D. Smedberg and the process of formation of the unit is so far advanced that a lecture on aviation will be given one week from tonight by an army officer from the headquarters in San Diego. Besides A Company for flying work, B Company of engineers is well under way, both organizations being destined for home duty.

Drill will be held this evening and every Tuesday evening in the State armory, and for the engineer corps preliminary drills are already under way. In both companies specially trained men are wanted, such as engineers, electricians, mechanics, telegraphers, blacksmiths, powdermen, chauffeurs and plumbers.

The temporary instructors for drill, aside from the army commissioned and non-commissioned officers, are Frank M. House, R. H. Nodderman, L. B. Gross, Frederick T. Johnson, Henry P. Bartlett, Hugh Fulton, Howard W. Smith and Samuel W. Reynolds.

To partially assist in recruiting the additional men needed, the two units being formed in Oakland are regarded as of extreme value by the officers of the guard and, it is declared, will be held as reserves for home use and not sent to the border. In other words, the new units will be reserve forces or home companies.

Weekly drills, to train the new soldiers are being arranged at the headquarters of Captain Joseph D. Smedberg, in charge of the work, and instruction is being given every Tuesday evening in the National Guard armory. The new engineer company and the new aviation company will hold joint meetings for the time being, it has been decided.

Practical study of United States Army field regulations and practical work in equal parts form the course of study pursued, and on the drill floor half hour classes in drilling are held under the direction of Sergeant Baker of the United States Army.

The lectures include the duties of non-commissioned officers, practical points on aviation service work and other allied duties, and later an army aviator will be employed as instructor. The Engineer Corps is seeking more skilled men for the work.

Town Officials Will Attend League Session

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 3. — Five of the town officials will attend the League of California Municipalities convention in Visalia, October 10 to 15, according to arrangements made at the regular meeting of the town board last night. Those who have signified their intention of attending are Trustees C. Q. Ridout, Michael Geisenhofer and Farley B. Granger; Town Attorney Harris J. Jones and Dr. L. Michael, president of the Board of Health.

Dr. B. F. Mason was refused permission to remodel a shed at the rear of his home following a report of the Board of Health that the shed was an old structure and did not meet with building requirements.

The board passed plans and specifications for the construction of a sewer on Hepburn street.

Loses Fight for Grandmother's Estate

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 3.—Miss Louise Disser of Denver has lost in the federal district court here a suit to establish her claim to a half interest in the $80,000 estate of her great grandmother, Mrs. Mary Disser of Ferguson, Mo.

Mrs. Disser, who died in 1914 made a will ten days before her death providing that her estate should go to her son and granddaughter. On the same day a warrant deed was filed in which Mrs. Disser transferred her property to her son.

The federal court held that the warrant deed was genuine.

LAST SMITH LECTURE.

The final lecture in the important course on the "Fiction of Power and Purpose," which has been given by Paul Jordan Smith, will occur this week, on Friday, October 6, being postponed one day on account of the Tagore reading on Thursday.

"HE WHO OWNS HIS OWN HOME OWNS AN EMPIRE"

A conqueror, in ancient times, encountered a philosopher working in his garden and said: "Will you trade with me, old wise man? Come, an empire for your little home!"

The philosopher merely looked up at his unwelcome visitor and resumed his labor. "He who owns his own home," he said, indifferently, "owns an empire."

The truth of that saying may not come home to you in times of plenty, but when hard times come, with lessened income, then the man with his house and garden has an empire indeed—an empire of peace and plenty.

Of course it takes money to buy a home. You passed neighbor Jenkins working in his garden of a morning and gathering its produce. You envied him his freedom from rent and ability to cut down the cost of living. Yet Jenkins probably saved a long time to make even the first payment on that home and then paid a longer time in monthly sums. That's the way people acquire their homes and it's a way worth while. But there is, at present, one other way to get it.

WAR ACTIVITY IN KIRKWALL GROWS

Aeroplanes and Submarines Accompany Steamship As Events Out of Harbor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Unusual activity of aeroplanes and submarines at the port of Kirkwall, Scotland, including the use of aircraft as escorts for ships putting to sea was reported by passengers arriving here today on the Danish steamship Helligolav, from Copenhagen, via Kirkwall, where the ship put in.

According to several of the passengers the harbor was crowded with undersea boats flying the British flag. Dozens of aeroplanes were darting about and hovering 500 feet over the city was a captive war balloon. When the Helligolay left port she was accompanied for about twenty-five miles by an armored airship, the aviator keeping close to the ship and making a careful inspection of the water ahead of her.

MAY HAVE TO PROVE CASE.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 3.—"Friend wife, as a musician, is some boob," Carl C. Nelson is credited with having said. The statement was made the basis of a divorce suit, instituted by the wife, set for today.

'WHY, OF COURSE, I HAVE A NEW FALL SUIT, KATE, HAVEN'T YOU?'

"You haven't? Well, I can't imagine a wide-awake girl like you wearing a summer suit as late in the autumn as this!

"Surely, Kate, it isn't money matters that keep you from getting your new Suit, is it? Why, my dear, I thought you knew about CHERRY'S wonderful Credit System.

"Let me tell you about it. In the first place, CHERRY'S have the most fascinating shops, Kate—roomy and modern. And every foot of space is packed with the prettiest, newest and smartest autumn attire you can imagine.

"When you find a Suit that pleases you, simply pay a small part of its price and arrange weekly or monthly terms. You'll never know how convenient and satisfactory it is until you try it. You will simply love the new Suits at CHERRY'S, Kate—be sure to see them right away.

"Remember, the ladies' store is at 515 13th street; across the street is the men's store, number 528 13th street. The store in San Francisco at 2400 Mission street is open evenings till 9 o'clock. CHERRY'S 1009 Market street shop is also a very attractive one. Others in Tacoma, Portland, Los Angeles and Sacramento."—Advertisement.

The busiest women in Alameda county were gathered together yesterday at the Baby Hospital, gazing in wrapt admiration at Porter Garnett, who was intently unfolding some mysterious and marvelous project that had to do with the Bal Masque—the dashing climax to the Baby Hospital Bazaar on October 21.

And knowing Porter Garnett to be the prose poet and pageant master of Bohemia, it is a safe guess that there's something big on the cards—something, one learns from underground, that has to do with the moon.

Now, whether an effort is being made to get it for the little sick babies hasn't developed—and Mr. Garnett won't talk, neither will the women, much less Mrs. Charles B. Wingate, who is chairman of the ball committee.

But the fact remains that there are portentious doings out at the hospital on Monday afternoons, and yesterday was an exceptionally productive day for big developments.

Among those who spent a busy day plotting and planning for the influx of ducats from the hospital fete (October 18, 20, 21) were Mrs. Edward W. Engs, Mrs. Bruce Cornwall, Miss Edith Dunning, Mrs. Frederick B. Magee, Mrs. W. B. Seabury, Mrs. Walter A. Schockley, Mrs. Charles B. Wingate, Miss Mabel Weed, Mrs. Harry S. Parr, Mrs. Frank Mott and Mrs. John Grissim.

Among the good people who have subscribed for boxes for the Bal Masque—and incidentally the mystery—are:

The East Indian rooms of "Wildwood," the Frank Havens home in Piedmont, with their carvings of teak and gilded Buddhas enshrined in the walls, staged with curious fitness and beauty a lecture given yesterday afternoon by Dhan Gopal Mukerji, a vivid young speaker from the Orient.

The talk, a brilliant and humorous one, centered around "The India of Tagore and Kipling." Standing on a little platform in a carved doorway in the lights of carved brass lamps and of the sun straining through colored curtains of beads, the young East Indian compared the two who have written so powerfully of his country—the one from the objective, the other from the subjective viewpoint. Many scores listened with intense interest and remained for questions and tea.

In fact, such interest was shown that the series of afternoon lectures to be given at "Wildwood" are evidently to loom large in the winter's calendar.

Dhan Mukerji, who is to give several of these Monday afternoon lectures, though a Hindoo and a Brahmin, did not appear in the picturesque draperies, the colored turban such as Sir Rabindranath Tagore is wearing in San Francisco. Much to the disappointment of many of the gathering, he was in the conventional black clothes of a European—for, despite his apparent youth, he has been an instructor at Stanford University and has been a lecturer for some time in this country.

In Tagore he saw the expression of the immemorial culture of India that has come down through the ages to be finally embodied in one living person. Kipling, while acknowledged as unsurpassed in certain powerful descriptive passages, he found had never really succeeded in delineating a Hindoo woman who "lived." Only with the unforgettable women of "On the City Wall" and "Without Benefit of Clergy," where he drew Mohammedans, did he think him successful.

Mrs. Havens, in opening her home for the series of lectures, had invited to share these afternoons many of widely different interests, and their friends. Among them were Mrs. Churchill Taylor, Mrs. Harold Havens, Mrs. Horatio Bonestell, Mrs. Guy Lilliancrantz, Mrs. Frederick Morse, Mrs. George E. Perkins, Mrs. Montell Taylor, Mrs. E. B. Braden, Mrs. Joseph Russell Knowland, Miss Winifred Braden, Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith, Mrs. T. A. Rickard, Mrs. Charles Butters, Mme. Eugenie Gerinc, Mrs. George W. Manuel, Mrs. A. F. Coffin, Mrs. A. E. Carter, Mrs. Philip R. Boone, and many others.

Miss Chrissie Taft has gone east, expecting to be away six weeks or more. During her trip she will visit New York, Washington, Chicago, and many other of the larger cities, and will be extensively entertained by friends and relatives.

✿ ✿ ✿

With a poem recital given last evening by Charles Keeler to the music of a harp played by Miss Zhay Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hamilton Hart began a series of intellectual soirees that are to be staged this winter at the Hart place in the Claremont hills.

This was one of the last few appearances of the California poet before he takes his leave on another lecture tour, one of the others being at a public recital this evening at Hotel Shattuck, under distinguished auspices.

Those whom Mr. and Mrs. Hart had invited to meet him included a number of artists and writers, as well as other appreciators, among them President and Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Heger, Mr. and Mrs. George M. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe, Signor and Mme. Antonio de Grassi, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cummings, Judge and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rand, Samuel Shortridge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willard Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Chesley John Roberts, Mrs. Winifred Black Bonfils, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Camm, Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Tietzen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schneider, and many others.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck Jr. have moved from their home in Piedmont, to live for the winter at least in Berkeley, where they are occupying Dr. Stott's residence.

✿ ✿ ✿

The engagement of Miss Thelma Jorgensen and Elton Elwood Jeffery was announced today at an elaborate luncheon given by the mother of the future bride, Mrs. Charles Jorgensen, at her home in Moss avenue.

Miss Jorgensen, who is an exceedingly pretty brunette, received her education at one of the fashionable private schools of this city. She is especially gifted musically, possessing a very agreeable singing voice. Her fiance, a young business man of Oakland, is the son of Richard E. Jeffery, a retired mining man of Piedmont. No date has been set for the wedding.

The guests at the luncheon were seventeen young friends of the hostess.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mr. and Mrs. William High are in Kansas City, attending the Bankers' convention. Before returning home they will visit Mr. High's brother, Gavin D. High, in New York, and his sister, Mrs. D. C. Royster, in North Carolina.

✿ ✿ ✿

One of the weddings of the past week was that of Miss Mary Doolan and Elmo Young, solemnized at Sacred Heart church last Wednesday morning in the presence of several score of guests. Father Power officiated at the impressive nuptial mass, and the two attendants were Miss Virginia Doolan, a sister of the bride, and Carl Strout, the best man. The church was decorated with plants and masses of ferlery.

After the honeymoon in Southern California, Mr. and Mrs. Young will establish themselves in a bungalow in Thirty-fifth avenue.

✿ ✿ ✿

One of the December weddings of interest to college circles will be that of Miss Edna Aikin, daughter of Mrs. Ora Larkey Aikin, and Kenneth Cuttle, announced a short time ago.

Miss Aikin, who is a pretty girl of brunette coloring, is a junior at the University and a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. She is a niece of Dr. A. S. Larkey and of Mrs. John Benjamin Tisdan. Her fiance graduated with this year's class from the University, where he was affiliated with the Theta Delta Chis.

No exact date has been set for the wedding, but as it takes place before the new year, it cuts short the bride-to-be's term of acquiring higher knowledge.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mrs. A. G. Freeman was a dinner host Sunday evening at Hotel Shattuck, entertaining Professor and Mrs. C. J. Kayser and Mrs. Philip L. Boone. Professor Kayser is taking Professor Haskell's place in the University of California in the department of mathematics, Professor Haskell exchanging with Professor Kayser at Columbia College in New York for a time.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McPherson have returned from a delightful trip to Minneapolis and are once more at their apartment at Hotel Shattuck. Making their headquarters in Minneapolis they spent their time there in taking motor trips to near-by cities.

✿ ✿ ✿

Nearly all Berkeley intends turning out this evening for the poem recital that Charles Keeler will give at the Shattuck tonight. Any number of distinguished persons are patrons and patronesses, and even should no others be there, he would have almost a "full house."

It is to be another of the evenings with the harp accompaniment that have made an aesthetic hit—Miss Zhay Clark to play just as she has at all the others. Before this smart affair, there are to be many dinner parties in Berkeley, but the really unique dinner follows.

That is a function to be given for Rabindranath Tagore over at the Bohemian Club. It is difficult to see the poet of spiritual India as a Bohemian, burning the soul of Care, and enjoying a jinks, but no doubt he will give the club a new sensation. It is to be an evening of a most serious character and apparently the West is to attempt to meet the East, for Charles Keeler of Berkeley is to read for Tagore.

Much honor is to be done to poets around the bay.

✿ ✿ ✿

Mrs. Walton P. Trent of Berkeley with Mrs. George Shreve is leaving for New York in a few days. They will take an apartment and are looking forward to a pleasant winter.

MISS EDNA AIKIN, one of the winter's attractive brides-elect. Her marriage to Kenneth Cuttle will take place next November, abbreviating by a year her college career. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ora Larkey Aikin and a niece of Dr. A. S. Larkey.

The CONFESSIONS of ROXANE

by FRANCES WALTER

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Mr. Gordon apparently had arranged everything down to the most minute detail. The table was laid on the veranda overlooking the Hudson, which curled and uncurled before our eyes like a huge serpentine bracelet of silver. On every side was the marvelously green, velvety grass, out of which now and then sprang the most delicious-looking shade trees.

As we walked to the veranda and looked out upon this lovely scene each of us involuntarily took a deep breath. It was as though we could not get enough of the pure, sweet air.

"Isn't life wonderful?" exclaimed Mariam. "All life, I mean; not merely my own or our own, although it looks like all other life was intended merely to contribute to the happiness of man. I am not trying to become philosophical, but sometimes great ideas occur even to me, and I just can't help giving them utterance."

We joined in her laughter.

"But it is remarkable, when one thinks of it, that everything that lives, whether it be of the animal or vegetable kingdom, was intended for man's use. That grass there must have been predestined and foreordained to gladden our eyes, and the big trees were never intended for anything except to shade us from the sun."

"When you see the luncheon I hope you will have further reason to make such observations," said Mr. Gordon. "Pierre told me he had arranged an exceptionally good menu, and I understand that Pierre never make a statement so extravagant unless there is ample reason. When anything is reasonably good Pierre always says it is bad. When it is very good Pierre will think it is passable. When it is supertine Pierre grudgingly admits it is good. What, then, must be in store for us if this king of pessimists describes the outlook as exceptionally good?"

"Let's not excite our curiosity," urged Miriam. "We will go and see for ourselves."

Mr. Gordon led the way into a private dining room overlooking the river and there before our eyes was the proof of Pierre's assertion.

"The ride has made me ravenous," declared Mariam. "I shall assert my right to one-third of everything that is ordered and shall immediately dispose of it according to the laws of healthy appetites."

"That is why I like to bring you out here," said Mr. Gordon. "I think you enjoy luncheon here better than you do anywhere else that you go."

"I am sure of it, and I want Roxane to get the habit, because we are coming out here often hereafter. Roxane and I cannot come alone, of course, so you must come with us."

"You will find me always ready," Mr. Gordon replied. "And to prove to you that I shall not be a martyr I will say that I enjoy being here just as much as either of you."

Our exchange of compliments was interrupted by a shrill cry from the lawn and Marian sprang toward the window. It was one of her girl acquaintances who had caught sight of her and was waving her handkerchief.

"It is Lucille," Mariam explained hurriedly to Mr. Gordon. "I must see her a moment."

She hurried from the room and Mr. Gordon and I were left alone.

One of the most consoling thoughts I had when we started on the trip was that with Mariam with us there would be no chance of Mr. Gordon and I being left alone together. Now, in the twinkling of an eye the thoughtlessness of Mariam had brought about what both he and I would have liked very much to postpone, if not to definitely prevent.

As the door slammed on the fleeing girl a strained silence fell upon both of us. Mr. Gordon looked out of the window, glancing furtively at me from time to time, while I deliberately avoided his glance by keeping my own eyes bent for the most part upon the table.

As the moments passed it seemed to me that the air was surcharged with danger to us both. I was afraid to break the silence because I feared my voice might catch, as it sometimes did when I labored under strong emotion. Mr. Gordon evidently was silent, because he was thinking deeply of something, and I fancied I knew what.

Finally, as I was about to make a desperate effort to speak, Mr. Gordon raised his head with the quick movement which was characteristic of him, and looked steadily at me for a moment.

"Why should we not speak of it?" he asked in the most matter-of-fact tone, just as if someone had openly proposed that we remain silent. "Can you give me any good reason? Certainly neither of us has anything to be ashamed of, and assuredly it is a subject which is very close to my heart, as I hope it is to yours. Why then, should we continue any longer to wear these false faces? Why try to hide something which we cannot hide? Let us talk about ourselves, Roxane. Tell me, are you happy?"

I raised my eyes to his. Not until they were looking into his face did I know the tears were on my lashes. I could not reply at once to his question. He bent toward me and placed his strong hand upon mine.

"Tell me, Roxane," he repeated, most earnestly. "Are you happy?"

(To be continued.)

Woman Saves $15 But Loses Auto

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—It was a woman with a baby. They took part—both of them—among the protestants over a $15 street work assessment at the supervisors' meeting at the City Hall yesterday.

The hearts of the supervisors melted at the thought of a poor woman losing her home by reason of an assessment of $15. The board held up the improvement.

Later the woman and baby came back with another protest.

"Some one has stolen my automobile," she declared.

And the supervisors are still wondering.

"Oh, dear! We'll never get this right," exclaimed Billie Bushytail, the boy squirrel, as he jumped up from the big flat stump where he was trying to make a kite with his brother Jonnnie.

"Maybe it will," said the other little squirrel chap, "if we can get the paper pasted good and tight over the string and the sticks, everything else will be all right."

"Yes, I know that," said Billie. "But the paste is all the trouble. We made it out of some flour and water that mother gave us, you know, and either it's too much like mush and milk or else it's like thick oatmeal—it doesn't stick right."

"Let's put in some more water," said Johnnie.

The two squirrel boys tried that, but the paste was so slimpsy-slopsly that it wouldn't stick as well as at first.

"Let's put in some more flour," suggested Billie.

So they tried that, but they must have used too much flour for the paste was so thick that it was like cornstarch pudding, and you know as well as I do, without being told, that you can't make a kite with a cornstarch pudding.

"Oh, dear!" exclaimed Billie.

"Oh, dear!" said Johnnie.

Then they both said together, like twins, only of course they weren't:

"Let's go ask Uncle Wiggily."

That's what all the animal children did when they had trouble. So over to the seashell bungalow where the rabbit gentleman lived with Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, his muskrat lady housekeeper, they went.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" called Billie. "Can you help us make a kite?"

"We don't seem to get the paste right," added Johnnie.

"Ha!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I know just what to do. Leave it to me. I have a new pot of paste I bought to make a scrap book. I'll use some of that on your kite."

So Uncle Wiggily took the paper, strings and sticks the squirrel boys gave him, and telling them to run off and play, and come back in about an hour, when he would have the kite made for them, the old rabbit gentleman started to work.

With scissors, paste pot, string, sticks and whatever else you have to use to make kites, he worked away, cutting, measuring, pasting and so on.

But something seemed to be wrong. The paper all twisted up, the strings tangled and at the last minute Uncle Wiggily slipped in some paste he had spilled on the floor and he fell down.

And, as he fell, a lot of paste spread itself all over him, and as he rolled and twisted and tried to get up again, and fell down once more he was so tangled in paper, paste, string and sticks that he looked just like a flying machine that has been to a picnic and played every game from baseball to hide the slipper.

"Oh, dear!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily as he stood up and looked at himself in a glass. "I am a terrible sight! I look like a kite or a balloon. I can't quite tell which. Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy would never know me. I must go jump in the bath tub at once. Billie and Johnnie can't have any kites today. I guess I'll give them some pennies so they can buy a kite at the three and four cent store."

So the bunny uncle rolled over on the floor once more, trying to rub off some of the paper, paste, strings and sticks; but he only became the more mixed up. And all at once he heard a knock at the door of his bungalow and a voice called:

"Is Uncle Wiggily Longears in here?"

"Yes, come right in, if you please," said the rabbit gentleman.

He heard footsteps coming in, but he could not see very well because a piece of red paper was pasted over one eye and a square of blue over the other.

"Ah! Ahem!" went on the voice. "I asked for Uncle Wiggily Longears, not the waste paper basket."

"I am Uncle Wiggily," was the answer from the rabbit gentleman, who was all mixed up with the kite he had tried to make for Billie and Johnnie.

"Well, you don't look like him," was the answer. "I was told a rabbit gentleman lived here, but you look like the newspaper after the cat has finished playing with it. I can hardly believe you are the bunny uncle."

"Oh, yes I am!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "If I could only get rid of this sticky paste and paper and string I'd soon show you who I am. But who are you, pray tell?"

"Why, I am the monkey doodle gentleman sent from the store to bring you some new garden hose so you can sprinkle water on the flowers for Nurse Jane," answered the voice. "But, excuse me for saying so, I can't leave the hose with you. You're not Uncle Wiggily at all. I was told he lived here, but you look like—well, of course, I don't want to hurt your feelings whoever you are—but you look like a rag bag turned inside out."

"Oh, but indeed I am Uncle Wiggily," was the answer. "And you say you have a garden hose for me? If you have, please fasten it on the faucet and then sprinkle some water on me. That will wash away the paper and paste and sticks and you can easily see who I am."

"Very well. I'll do that," said the monkey doodle. So he brought in the hose from the wagon and made it fast to the kitchen faucet. Then Uncle Wiggily stood out on the lawn.

"Whizz! Whish!" went the water through the hose. First paste was washed from Uncle Wiggily. Then the paper melted away, then the sticks and string. Finally the rabbit gentleman, all wet and sloppy, it is true, but dressed in his fur, as he ought to be, stood there.

"Yes, you are Uncle Wiggily," said the monkey doodle. "Excuse me for not believing you. Here is your hose."

Women in the News

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A letter to Mrs. Margaret Sanger, birth control advocate, tells of the death in London of Mrs. Edith Ellis, wife of Havelock Ellis, the famous biologist, sexologist and author of works on psychology. Ellis said in the letter that his wife died on September 14 of pneumonia, following a chill contracted a fortnight earlier while watching a Zeppelin raid.

Mrs. Ellis herself was noted as a lecturer and writer. Her body was cremated and the ashes scattered over Hampstead Green.

BOTH BROTHERS ARE SUED FOR DIVORCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Like a sequel to the martial crash of his brother and fellow architect, Arthur Francis Rousseau, three years ago, came yesterday the filing of a divorce action against Oliver M. Rousseau of the firm of Rousseau & Rousseau, by his beautiful wife, Irene M. Caubu Rousseau.

And in the social whirl gossops are remarking that those "Rousseau boys" don't seem to get along with their wives.

Mrs. Irene Rousseau charges that her husband, after being absent from home more than twenty-four hours on a party at a yachting club across the bay, said when she asked for an explanation:

"I was in more desirable company than you make. I am tired of your old face. I want a different chicken every night, like my brother Arthur."

MRS. McCARTHY IS STILL IN DANGER.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Mayzellia McCarthy, who is suing Dr. William C. McCarthy of San Mateo, for divorce, and who was operated on for appendicitis yesterday at the Columbia Hospital, is not yet out of danger. Her physician says that it will be two or three days before it can be known whether she will survive the shock.

DROP CHARGES AGAINST HUSBAND'S RELATIVES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Rose Piazzoni Smith, who was accused by her two brothers-in-law of using her "blandishments and physical charms" to influence unduly her late husband, Edwin Victor Smith, former president of the Eccles & Smith Company, at 71 First street, has effected a compromise with her husband's relatives, and the two suits brought against her in the Superior Court were dismissed yesterday by Superior Judge J. V. Coffey.

Whether the widow's charms had any influence in effecting a successful compromise for her is not apparent in the formal legal documents signed by the judge yesterday, but the agreement of compromise does show that out of an estate of $125,000 she will retain about $121,000, and at the same time rid herself of two law suits which might have kept the estate tied up in litigation for many years.

Dismissals of both suits, signed by attorneys for the contestants, were presented to Judge Coffey yesterday by Attorney Lee de Forest, representing Mrs. Smith, and the judge then appointed Mrs. Smith executrix of her husband's estate.

GRIEVING WOMAN ENDS OWN LIFE.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 3.—Mary A. Pollock, 55 years old, who recently came to California from Kansas City, took poison and died a few minutes later, in spite of the best efforts of physicians who were summoned. Mrs. Pollock recently had word of the death of her father, and was also grieving over the death of a son. Pollock saw her drain the poison, but was unable to prevent the act.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY.

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from Drug Dept. at Kahn's, Broadway, San Pablo and Sixteenth street, or any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footsteps become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

This Will Remove Hair or Fuzzy Growths

(Toilet Tips)

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disappointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine delatone.—Advertisement.

ST. FRANCIS MOVIE HOUSE A SUCCESS

Elite of S. F. Attend First Night of Elaborate Picture Theater.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Crowded with the elite of San Francisco and the bay cities, the Theater St. Francis, at Geary and Powell streets, opened last evening and disclosed itself to be the finest and most scientifically constructed photoplay house in America.

As early as 6:45 people commenced gathering in the handsome lobby, and when the gorgeous color effects began to move across the enormous glass facade of the theater at 7:15 hundreds were waiting.

A few minutes after 8 the doors opened, and within eight minutes every one of the 1100 seats were taken, and hundreds were forced to wait for the second show.

The opening bill was: Pauline Frederick in her newest play, "Ashes of Embers"; Ralph Herz in his latest comedy, "The Lady Killer"; a Burton Holmes travelogue, "Old Ireland," and the new Universal weekly. The bill continues throughout the week, changing on Monday. Special interpretative music and a concert made up the musical program. Souvenir programs and a miniature portrait of Miss Frederick were issued to patrons of both shows. Flashlight photos were taken of both interior and exterior of this unique, efficient, beautiful new theater.

The policy of the Theater St. Francis is no less wonderful than the building and the plays themselves. Only first-run feature pictures will ever be shown, and these will always be clean and elevating. The first-class orchestra will always render such music as will best interpret the action of the feature pictures. Prices are moderate: Matinee, entire house, 15 cents; nights, entire house, 20 cents; loges, 30 cents.

Mr. Josey and Charles Rosenthal Jr., the manager, are receiving widespread congratulations on the successful opening of the Theater St. Francis and on the policy adopted. Many beautiful floral pieces in lobby and house showed that the best wishes and hopes of scores of friends were with the proprietors for the continued success of the theater.

Claimant of Noble Descent Faces Jury

Mrs. Valerie Higgins, who has claimed relationship to Austrian nobility, went on trial before a jury in the Superior Court today on a charge of arson in connection with a fire in the Castlewood Apartments, Twelfth and Jefferson streets, on August 5. Attorney John R. Tolan appeared for the defendant. Deputy W. T. Satterwhite represented the prosecution.

Bailiff of Court Ill at His Home

William T. McCarthy, deputy sheriff and bailiff in Superior Judge Brown's court who is suffering from a stroke of paralysis, was reported in a precarious condition today. He is confined to his home at 1712 Ninth street. For several weeks McCarthy had not been in his usual health. He was stricken last Sunday night.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best Doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in most other cases, knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it, so as to give a permanent cure. All he can do is to prescribe the usual pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and treatment is again necessary. If you suffer from headaches, no matter what their nature, take anti-kamnia tablets, and the results will be satisfactory in the highest degree. You can obtain them at all druggists in any quantity, 10c worth, 25c worth or more. Ask for A-K Tablets.

SICK-HEADACHES

Sick-headache, the most miserable of all sicknesses, loses its terrors when A-K Tablets are taken. When you feel an attack coming on take two tablets, and in many cases, the attack will be warded off. During an attack take one A-K Tablet every two hours. The rest and comfort which follow, can be obtained in no other way.

Genuine A-K Tablets bear the K monogram. At all druggists.

HITCH COMES IN LOTTERY PACT

Police Raid Results in Demand for More Jury Trials.

The lottery war is on again, indicating that some hitch has occurred in the tacit compromise which the Chinese gamblers and the police had agreed upon. Five Chinese, arrested yesterday for selling lottery tickets, pleaded not guilty before Police Judge George Samuels today and demanded trials by jury. They were not permitted to forfeit bail on the understanding that for every man who gave the city $300 one man would be dismissed from custody.

Incidentally, Police Judge Mortimer Smith's court added $470 to the city's general fund. Of this, $300 was paid by Ah Kim, arrested for selling lottery tickets. No Chinese was released with his forfeiture. Three alleged pickpockets — John Mason, Harry Jackson and John O'Keefe—forfeited $50 each, and two white men, alleged to have had lottery tickets in their possession, forfeited $10 bail each.

The lottery war with the white dealers is also still on, as four of the cigar store men recently arrested in raids pleaded not guilty to five charges and asked for jury trials. These were granted by Judge Smith. Each of the men is out on $300 bail each. The four who appeared in court today were Tony Courant, Abe Davis, who has two charges against him; A. E. Preston and T. J. Weaver.

City Employees Must Seek Pay From Banks

For the first time in eighteen years Oakland's city treasurer has no money with which to pay monthly salaries to city employees. As a result, more than 1000 of them yesterday cashed the warrants given them at local banks, and paid something in excess of $1000 for the accommodation. That is, the banks charged them one-half of one per cent per month for their money. The warrants will in turn be made good by the municipality when tax moneys begin to come in in November.

The same situation will occur next month, and the banks will take in something like $500 of the employees' money for the privilege of receiving their monthly stipends on time. The city has often been without funds to pay the employees from the general fund, owing to the fact that tax moneys do not come in until December. Heretofore, though, money has been borrowed from the bond funds that the employees might be paid in cash. This year there is no bond fund, all such moneys having been used up on the public improvement to which they were voted.

West Oakland Fill Cost to Be Reported

Commissioner Harry S. Anderson will tell the City Council Thursday the results of his investigation into the cost and conditions of the proposed fill of the West Oakland marsh lands. The municipal dredger, now at work on the western waterfront, digging a channel in accordance with the lease held by the Albers Brothers Milling Company, will pump the sand taken from the bay upon the lands to be filled at a cost not to exceed ten cents a cubic yard.

Anderson will propose to the owners of property in the marsh lands that this sand be purchased from the city. The charge of ten cents a cubic yard will represent the actual cost of the work to the city. It is believed that the great majority of the property owners will agree to the plan, and that the long-discussed question of filling in the marsh will finally be settled.

Wife Believes Poison Was Given to Husband

ALAMEDA, Oct. 3.—F. Ruffati, who mysteriously left home at 308 Lincoln avenue on the night of October 1, is back at home, apparently suffering from some form of drug poisoning. Mrs. Ruffati appealed to the police saying that two men employed at the Clark pottery called on her husband at 9 o'clock Sunday night and that her husband walked out of the house with the men and failed to return. Ruffati returned home in a sick and battered condition. The police are investigating but Ruffati as yet is unable to tell a coherent tale of his experiences. He, like the men who called on him, is employed at the pottery as a presser.

Tomato Crop Hit by Recent Rains

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 3. — Growers of tomatoes in this section have been frantically picking the ripe portion of the crop in an effort to save it from cracking and rotting following the heavy rain. Prompt picking has met with some success but the spoiling of many of the ripe tomatoes by rain has caused growers considerable loss.

Growers are at present engaged in fulfilling contracts with the canneries and pickle works, prices ranging from $8 a ton from the canneries to $12 a ton paid by the pickle works.

Little Boy Witness in Divorce Tangle

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—"I saw papa hit mamma in the eye," testified 5-year-old Francis Masterson, corroborating the story of his mother, Mildred E. Masterson, who was given a divorce by Superior Judge Graham today from Lawrence Masterson, a fireman, of 45 Devisadero street. The wife put in a plea for the two platoon fire system, declaring that had it been in vogue she and her spouse might have gotten along better.

Girl Drug Victim Is Sent to Napa

Blanche La Mar, the 20-year-old victim of the drug habit who was arrested in a raid on a Chinese joint in Franklin street last week, was today committed by Superior Judge T. W. Harris to the Napa asylum wheer an effort will be made by physicians to cure her. During the examination the girl steadfastly refused to divulge her past or tell of her parentage. She has stated that her family lives in Sacramento and is well known.

NEW LECTURE COURSE.

A lecture course is to be given by Dhan Gopal Mukerji on consecutive Tuesday afternoons, beginning today. The course will comprise a study of the modern drama. The first lecture is to be an Oriental study of Ibsen, in whom the will to see and face the truth reaches its zenith of criticism. On the second afternoon Mr. Mukerji will discuss the symbolists Varhaeren, Rostand and Maeterlinck, who, though in a manner different, arrive at the same conclusion with Ibsen. The final lecture of the course will be on Tagore and other modern Hindu dramatists, to whom also a criticism of life reveals that life is the other name of truth and love. They will be given at the Paul Elder Gallery, 239 Grant avenue, San Francisco.

GRAFTING PROBE ON IN CHICAGO

Federal and State Authorities Investigating and Gamblers Are in Panic for the "Pull of Political Influence" Vanishes

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—United States District Attorney Charles Clyne made preparations today to bring charges of violating postal laws against what he believes to be a nation-wide gambling ring. This is the outcome of exposure of alleged racing pools by Federal Judge Landis.

Clyne said today that sending racing results over interstate wires for gambling purposes and sending of checks through the mails would provide ground for prosecution, he believed.

Grafters and gamblers who have been working under cover of police protection and political privilege are hustling to cover following the announcement of Mayor William T. Thompson that he would prosecute even his friends if they attempted to graft by alleging a pull at the city hall.

The raid by State's Attorney Hoyne yesterday of the Sportsmen's Club of America, of which Mayor Thompson formerly was president, is causing the panic among local politicians and saloonkeepers, who are said to have bought promises of immunity through purchase of costly membership in the Sportsmen's Club.

A grand jury will begin an inquiry into the affairs of the Sportsmen's Club to determine what has become of the $100,000 to $140,000 collected by the club for membership. Mayor Thompson, in commenting on the raid of the club, said:

So far as the Sportsmen's Club is concerned, I regret very much that there is any trouble there, but if the club or any members of it has been guilty of using illegal methods or misrepresentations or promising to square any law violator with the mayor of Chicago, then I am for a full and clean-cut prosecution.

The club supported me in election and did good work, for which I was and am grateful. But this influence is not to be sold or purchased.

The racing pool investigation is expected to disclose a national syndicate. It is testimony that brokers had leased wires from St. Louis to Buffalo via Pittsburg. It was testified bets daily in Chicago amount to $6000 to $7000.

Good Samaritan Is "Nabbed" by Police

Nathan Rotke, a trunk dealer of 517 Twelfth street, almost went to jail today because he played the part of the good samaritan. When Mrs. Carrie Carter, 1460 Seventy-third avenue, wailed that she had been robbed of her purse, Rotke, sympathetic, rushed into the crowd on the sidewalk and began to tak cup a collection for her. Wagon Officer W. R. Jones of the police patrol was told by a bystander that Rotke and the woman were playing a "bunko game," whereupon that officer took the merchant in the patrol wagon to the Emergency hospital with him.

Rotke stood by disconsolate, under arrest, while Mrs. Carter was being treated for hysteria. Then Police Inspector R. V. McSorley happened in. He recognized Rotke, learned the circumstances, and the merchant was released. He had collected $6:50 from the sympathetic crowd, and this was given to Mrs. Carter.

2 Wives; 1 Man in Klondyke Romance

When Ludwig Weinrich married Gustie Monthe at Dawson, Alaska, in May, 1908, he had another wife living at Hinton, Iowa, whom he wed New Year's day, 1900, according to the complaint for [illegible]ment filed today by Mrs. Weinrich No. 2. As evidence of the duplicity her husband practiced upon her Mrs. Weinrich introduces an affidavit given by Weinrich under the British marriage laws which recites that—

"According to the best of my knowledge and belief, there is no affinity, consanguinity, pre-contract or any other lawful cause or legal impediment to bar or hinder the solemnization of the said marriage."

At the time of her marriage Mrs. Weinrich was a "spinster," according to the affidavit.

Professor to Lecture on Home Gardening

Professor W. J. Grieg of the department of floral culture and landscape gardening of the University of California will lecture this evening at Lisser Hall, Mills College, at 8 o'clock, on the subject "Landscape Embellishment of Home Grounds." This is the fifth of a series of lectures on the art and practise of landscape gardening given by Professors Grieg and R. D. Stephens of the University of California. The next lecture will be Thursday evening, October 12, in Lisser Hall at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Good Old Home-Made Family Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind—Easily and Cheaply Prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents and gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

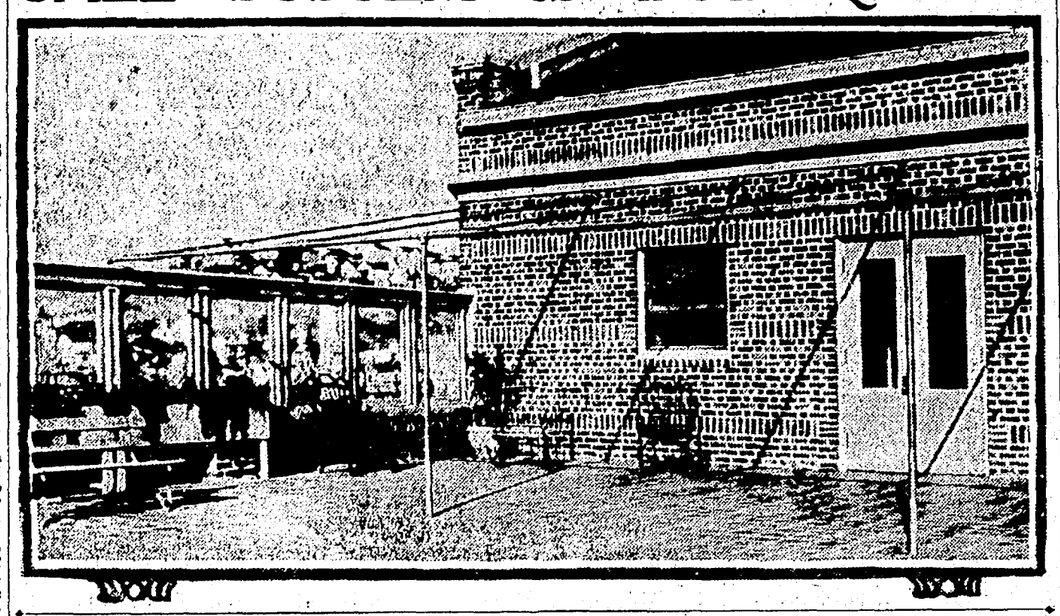

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

NURSING IS RATED HIGH IN S. F.

INDIGENTS ARE HELPERS HERE

CALL SYSTEM IS INADEQUATE

Roof Garden, shielded by glass walls from wind, used by patients at San Francisco hospital. It is one of many.

By HARRY L. SULLY.

A boy died at the Alameda County Infirmary last March from diphtheria, after having been for many hours under the care of an aged woman inmate of the institution, a woman whose name appears scores of times upon the Oakland police blotter with a charge of drunkenness stamped beside it. It is alleged that the woman was under the influence of liquor at the time she was caring for the boy.

The case occasioned an "investigation." But the custom still prevails of permitting indigents and other inmates of the infirmary aid professional nurses in the care of the sick. It is a natural consequence of a slipshod method of conducting an institution which is a cross between a hospital and an almshouse.

All nursing in the San Francisco City and County Hospital is done by nurses—nurses who are specially trained in their work, and whose qualifications are definitely established before they are permitted to undertake the responsibility of the care of invalids. It may be worth while to tell something of the method of training nurses in the San Francisco hospital.

Before doing so, I wish to explain that no criticism is here offered of the nurses at present employed at the Alameda County Infirmary. Complaints concerning neglect on the part of nurses have come to this office, both in the form of personal statements and of letters. All agree that some of the nurses are kindly and efficient. It would be an injustice to these to make any criticism of the nurses themselves.

But in this discussion facts should be kept in mind. They are:

NO CALL SYSTEM.

There is no adequate call system at the infirmary. The patients must either wait for nurses to make their rounds or call "Nurse! Nurse!" or clatter on the side or leg of the bed with drinking cup or some other utensil.

There is no system by which a positive check can be kept upon whether or not nurses give proper attention to their patients. It is a matter of opinion. The resident physician says he "believes" they do. The many complaints that have been made by patients might indicate the contrary. Nobody can make a statement either way and prove it. For this condition the nurse is not to blame. The lack of system is. A nurse, like a night watchman, also needs watching.

Work that should be done by nurses is actually done, in many instances, by untrained and ignorant inmates of the institution. Again the nurses must not be blamed. There are not enough of them. The performance of these "duties" by inmates is part of the system.

Such conditions do not obtain at the San Francisco City and County Hospital. There are about 140 nurses, the larger number of these being girls in the nurses' training school.

In days gone by, when the San Francisco hospital was almost as badly off as that of Alameda county at the present time, the nurses who had graduated from the City and County Hospital were looked down upon by nurses who had received their training in other hospitals. They were considered inefficient, almost of a different class.

Today the nurses graduated from the San Francisco hospital have taken their place at the head of the list among graduate nurses in the community. Physicians look upon them as the best trained women in the profession among the recent graduates.

NURSES' HOME.

One large unit of the hospital has been planned as a "Nurses' Home" for the women nurses employed in the hospital. It is roomy, airy and sunny. It is well furnished. There is no suggestion of "shop," of hospital, about it.

It contains the rooms of the nurses, a small private dining-room, where they can hold little parties and "chafing dish evenings." It contains an excellent little dance hall, where musicales are enjoyed, followed by informal dances. It contains a meeting hall for the directors of the nurses' school and the alumnae of the institution.

There is also the lecture hall, in which lectures are given daily, and in which the girls who are serving their three months' probationary period, before they are allowed to perform any actual nursing, are trained to care for a lay figure, to handle the "patient," administer the proper medicines and treatment, first aid, feeding the sick, physiology and anatomy in their elementary forms, and the nutritive factors in various diets.

There is also the model diet kitchen, where they are taught to cook dainty things for their patients, this course being given by the skilled dietician.

"Some people called this waste of money," said Dr. Brodrick, superintendent of the hospital. "It is really one of the things that has made it possible for us to keep the cost of this institution down to $1.26 a patient per day." He continued:

These nurses are efficient. They are kept cheerful. They are kept healthy. They make a minimum number of mistakes. They are able to do more work and do it better because they have a "home" into which they can retire and forget "shop" when they are through work.

In training efficient, splendid nurses, we are performing a social service to the community that cannot be measured in dollars and cents, although it makes a return to the community in dollars and cents.

This is one of the reasons why students of hospital work come across the continent to learn what we are doing in this hospital.

The nurses went by us about their business quietly as we talked. They could measure up to that artistic ideal named the California girl at her best. Clear-skinned, fresh and healthy, they were an inspiration toward well being.

I thought of the portable houses stuck away on the Alameda County Infirmary grounds, constituting the "Nurses' Home" in Alameda county. I thought of the nurse followed by a worried, anxious-looking inmate of the infirmary, carrying wash basins and other utensils into the women's ward at the Alameda County Hospital. The picture of a clumsy and apparently feeble-witted youth dragging a shirt from the back of a patient in the attic ward, while the patient groaned and tried feebly to aid in freeing himself from the garment, rose before me. There were also the stories told me by porch-ward patients of the reliance they were forced to place upon the services of indigents for the satisfaction of their hospital needs.

The smallpox patient, having for "nurse" an aged man to keep the flies away, recurred to mind. There was also the boy who died of diphtheria while being cared for by a known recidivist.

"Investigation" has followed "investigation" at the county infirmary. Somebody is always in the position of "defending" something. So it will continue while this system prevails. So it will continue while two institutions with divergent purposes are maintained under one management.

Yet the remedy has been worked out in detail across the bay. Theories are not needed. The facts are obvious, and tell their own story so plainly that he who runs may read.

Start Tomorrow and Keep It Up Every Morning

Get in the habit of drinking a glass of hot water before breakfast.

We're not here long, so let's make our stay agreeable. Let us live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, and look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet, how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of inside bathing before breakfast.—Advertisement.

POLICEMAN'S BALL TO AID WIDOWS

One of the features of the policeman's ball to be held in the Municipal Auditorium on the evening of October 12 will be the celebration of the restoration of Walter J. Petersen to the office of chief of police. This was decided today by the committees in charge of the big dance.

Police Captain J. F. Lynch, as president of the Widows' and Orphans' Aid Association, is general chairman of all committees in charge of the ball, and has as assistants Captains Charles H. Bock and Thorvald Brown. Joseph H. Robinson, police inspector, is chairman of the floor committee. This is the first time in three years that the organization has held a dance. The last was in 1913 at Idora park.

Those in charge announced today that the largest crowd that has yet attended a policeman's ball in Oakland will be in the auditorium arena on the night of October 12. Thousands of tickets have already been disposed of, and more are being prepared. This is to be the first time that the bluecoats have held their dance in the city's auditorium.

This year's ball will mark the resumption of the annual custom of holding the bluecoats' festival. Officers of the Widows' and Orphans' Aid Association are planning to hold the affair annually hereafter. All money taken in through this medium is placed in the pension and insurance fund of the organization. Pensions and insurance amounts are paid to the widows and orphans of the city's police officers who die in service or who are killed in the performance of their duty. The organization is incorporated.

Robinson's committee is planning a special feature program for the night of the ball. The arrangements have not yet been made, but Robinson announced today that there would be a number of feature acts presented on the stage of the auditorium arena during the progress of the ball.

Club Fails to Urge New "Cragmont City"

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—Proposed incorporation of the Cragmont section into a separate municipality advanced no further at the meeting of the Cragmont Improvement Club held last evening at the home of George Payne. Supervisor Fred W. Foss addressed the organization on the subject, but no action was taken either for or against the scheme.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: S. F. Pine, president; Dr. C. A. Mee, vice-president; W. W. Selleck, secretary; Mrs. W. W. Selleck, treasurer; Mrs. C. Whitney, J. U. de Rocco and George Rodehaver, members of the executive committee.

OIL DECISION IS HELD IMPORTANT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—The system of holding company control of the Union Oil Company of California, the device means of which Lyman Stewart and the members of his family, while owning approximately one-eighth of the total outstanding stock of the $50,000,000 corporation, have been able for years to dominate the affairs, dictate the policy and select all of the members of the board of directors, has been broken. In a decision handed down yesterday Superior Judge Louis M. Myers granted a permanent injunction restraining the United Petroleum Company, one of the holding concerns, from voting the Union Oil shares and requiring the distribution of proxies to all of the holding company stockholders.

This is the first court decision of its kind, touching upon the question of the legality of holding company devices, ever handed down in California, and if carried ot the higher courts will be a leading case, to be followed as a precedent by the courts of the entire country.

Attorneys representing the Stewart family immediately announced their intention of appealing.

The keynote of Judge Myer's decision is this:

In my opinion it is the public policy of the State of California, as evidenced by its constitution and statutory enactments, that in the case of a California corporation, organized for profit, the voting power shall be vested in the beneficial owners of its capital stock in proportion to their ownership therein; that this rule is subject to certain limitations and exceptions expressed in the statutes, and that the case at bar does not come within any of those expressed exceptions.

Judge Myers said he concluded, as a fact, that the United Petroleum Company was organized originally and primarily as a device for securing to the Stewart family control of the Union Oil Company, while holding less than a majority of the stock of the latter company.

ARTISTS PLAN FOR CONCERT SERIES

Festivals of Music at Auditorium Outlined by the Committee.

Plans for four community music festivals to be held during the coming year have been outlined by a joint committee of citizens and members of the Chamber of Commerce and work has begun upon the details of what promises to be a most successful development of the co-operative idea in choral singing and spectacular pageantry.

The first event planned by the committee is a performance of Handel's great oratorio, "The Messiah," in the Municipal Auditorium on New Year's eve by the Alameda County Chorus under the direction of Alexander Stewart, with soloists of note. The date will fall upon a Sunday, and the churches of Protestant denominations are planning to close the various houses of worship on that evening that the concert may become a gigantic civic watch meeting to bid the old year farewell and welcome the new.

The second event scheduled will be a costumed presentation of Frederic H. Cowen's cantata, "The Rose Maiden," on the shores of Lake Merritt at a date to be selected some time in the spring. The event will be in the nature of a spring festival in which the entire community will participate.

On the eve of Decoration Day, a concert of Songs of Peace and War will be given in the Municipal Auditorium. It is planned to have the members of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Veterans of the Spanish-American War participate in a miniature camp on the floor of the arena, with tents, stacked arms and camp fires, while the public will be addmitted to the balcony and the songs will be rendered from the stage.

The last event planned will be late in the spring and will be a song festival at the Joaquin Miller Cross. The details of this concert have not yet been worked out.

The Chamber of Commerce committee having charge of the festivals is composed of Dr. Joseph Loran Pease, S. E. Biddle, and W. N. Jenkins. At a meeting held today a subcommittee was named consisting of S. E. Biddle, J. Roy Munsell, George Cummings, Joseph J. Rosborough and A. S. Lavenson. A meeting of the committee will be held tomorrow for further discussion of ways and means.

Judge's Places Upon Electoral Roll Filled

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3.—L. F. Puter of Eureka and Irving C. Acker, man of San Francisco, have been selected by the Democratic State Central Committee as Democratic Presidential Electors to succeed Judge Peter J. Shields of Sacramento and Judge Emmet Seawell of Sonoma county. Puter replaces Seawell and Ackerman replaces Shields.

Rather than take the chance of having the entire list of Democratic Presidential Electors from California invalidated through a technicality, Judge Seawell and Judge Shields requested that their names be removed from the list of Democratic Electors.

Their action followed statements to the effect that under the Constitution of the state, judges of the Superior Court are prevented from holding any other office.

The secretary of state's office conceded the right of the Democrats of the state to replace Shields and Seawell as electors, if those two jurists did not desire to serve.

Motor Wires Cause Albany Block Alarm

An automobile belonging to Stanley McElroy was destroyed in a fire which burned down a garage at 723 Seventeenth street at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The cause of the blaze is undetermined. McElroy's car was fully insured. Another fire shortly before midnight last night threatened the Albany block, at Fifteenth street and Broadway. A coil in the elevator motor had ignited. The fire department extinguished the blaze.

New York Removes Plague Quarantine

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The public health service today discontinued its notifications to state health authorities of children under 16 leaving New York, instituted during the infantile paralysis epidemic and now considered unnecessary. Health authorities throughout the country were informed.

MEALS WILL FIT! NO INDIGESTION, GAS OR ACIDITY

Eat Without Fear of Sourness, Heartburn, Belching or Dyspepsia.

The Moment "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lays like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness, constipation, griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that fermentation and sour stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble catarrh of the stomach, nervousness or gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that instant relief is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out of order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort all of any kind of food you eat.—Advertisement.

Seven Indicted by U. S. Grand Jury

First Federal Body to Convene in Capital

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3.—Seven indictments, five of them against persons arrested for raising the denomination of government bills, were returned today, representing the first day's work of the first federal grand jury to convene in Sacramento.

Fred Smith, Tom Allen and Joe Dresser are indicted for a conspiracy to forge and alter United States silver certificates and to pass the same.

In separate indictments Allen is charged with forging and altering $2 bills, making them $20. Dresser is charged with passing the bills, and Allen with aiding and abetting in the passing of the bills in Sacramento.

Riki Nakamoto is indicted for forging, altering, having in his possession and passing forged and altered obligations of the United States. There are in all eighteen counts in the indictment against the Japanese. His attorney, D. H. Hatfield, announced that he will plead guilty. Nakamoto raised $1 bills to $10, and his work was so clever that he had passed quite a number before he was caught.

On Will, Chinese, is indicted for receiving, concealing and facilitating the transportation of eight cans of smoking opium in Marysville. The seventh indictment is against George E. Shearer of Red Bluff, charging him with sending through the mails an obscene letter addressed to a Santa Rosa girl.

The grand jury continued in session today, considering cases, it is reported, of the sale of liquor to Indians, and the obstruction of streams tributary to the Sacramento river by hydraulic mining operations.

MAY HEAR RATES CASE ON COAST

San Francisco and Oakland Chambers to Present Defense Jointly.

While the Oakland and San Francisco Chambers of Commerce are outlining their defense against the proposed higher transcontinental freight rates, intimation has arrived today that another extension of time, putting the operation of the new rates over further than the first of the year, is to be permitted by the Interstate Commerce Commission. It was also learned today that the commission will probably hold a hearing in San Francisco on the question.

The Oakland and San Francisco chambers have joined in the fight against higher rates on commodities to this coast, and will, by the time the hearing is held, have enlisted the support of all the chambers in the state, to present delegates from each city before the commission meeting.

Secretary J. E. Caine and Eugene Bowles, handling the Oakland chamber's operations, conferred yesterday with Seth Mann, traffic attorney engaged in outlining the joint defense, and A. Willis, traffic expert. Mann declared that in his estimation no "snap judgment" would be taken in the case, which is the largest rate case ever to be heard by the commission in its history.

"As there are more than 100 commodities to be passed upon," said Mann, "it means that there are really more than 100 cases to come before the commission, as each commodity, requiring a different method of handling, involves a new question."

If the hearing is held in San Francisco, as is declared to be practically assured, it will facilitate the work of the defense. The principal line of defense will be in presenting figures of every individual loss to every business through the proposed increases in rates from the East.

Sen. Lewis Adresses Meeting in Berkeley

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—Senator J. Ham Lewis of Illinois sandwiched Berkeley into the itinerary of his western swing for Woodrow Wilson and addressed an audience at the high school auditorium late this afternoon on the issues of the campaign. The meeting was under the auspices of the University of California Woodrow Wilson Club of which Eddie Mahan, assistant baseball coach at the university, is president. This evening Senator Lewis will continue on his way south.

Allen's Foot-Ease For the Troops

Many war zone hospitals have ordered Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder, for use among the troops. Shaken into the shoes and used in the foot-bath, Allen's Foot-Ease gives rest and comfort, takes the friction from the shoe, and prevents the feet getting tired or foot-sore. Drug and Department Stores everywhere sell it, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Try it today.—Advertisement.

ROTARIANS OF STATE MEETING

"The California Idea" Will Be Topic of Discussion at Session.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—A special convention of the Rotary Clubs of California was to begin here today at the Palace Hotel for the purpose of formally launching "The California Idea" which is said to have originated with the clubs of the state. The sessions are to last during a "Path of Gold" celebration and pageant with which a new lighting system is to be inaugurated on Market street tonight.

"The California Idea" is explained by the members of the clubs to be the promulgation of a nation-wide campaign to bring a realization of their civic duties to all business and professional men and women of the United States in connection with the elections in November. The plan is to induce the decent element to register and vote and thus take political power out of the hands of "practical politicians and electioneering hangerson."

A main feature of the convention today was to be an address by Frederick J. Koster, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. His address was to deal with the fight the Chamber of Commerce is making for the "open shop" principle in California. "What Will Happen to San Francisco in Ten Years," was to be the subject. The effect of the "open shop" fight on business and social future of the city was to be discussed at length.

Delegates from Los Angeles, San Diego, San Jose, Oakland, Berkeley, Stockton and Sacramento are to take part in the convention. Many of them arrived yesterday.

VIOLENCE CAUSED BY MILK WAR

New York City Suffers Shortage As Farmers of the State Hold Back Products to Compel Raise in the Selling Price

Producers Organize and Dump Thousands of Gallons Seized From Those Who Refuse to Join Effort to Improve Affairs

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The New York state farmers tightened their grip on the milk supply today and caused a further reduction in the supplies to this city. The farmers are holding back the product of their dairies to compel the big distributors here to pay higher prices.

The milk war has spread throughout the state. Reports from all parts of New York tell of thousands of gallons of milk spilled in combats between the dairymen and the employees of the distributors, the picketing of cross roads in dairy districts, farmers held up and beaten and the establishment of cheese manufactories to dispose of the surplus resulting from the withholding of New York City's supply.

Twenty deputies have been sworn in in Dutchess county to prevent raids of farmers upon their neighbors to compel them to hold back their product. This followed an attack on one man who was severely beaten while the deputy who accompanied him was tied to a tree. Masked farmers are reported to be patrolling the roads in several counties up state seizing milk and dumping it. In some places the farmers are contributing funds to build co-operative creameries.

'Canary Cottage' Comes Back Again

Friganza Quips Applauded by Crowd

ELSIE GORDON, whose cleverness adds much to "Canary Cottage"

Morosco-Harris Musical Farce Returns With Fun and Sparkle Undiminished

Ere musical street boys have forgotten to warble its haunting melodies, "Canary Cottage" is with us again with its catchy songs, infectious gayety and bright comedy. A single week's return engagement of the popular comedy opened before a capacity house at the Macdonough Theater last night.

Sparkling with musical gems and rich in original comedy, it is little wonder that Oliver Morosco's "farce with music" is proving one of the most successful of musical comedies and that its reception by Oakland theater goers is as warm as any accorded it on the coast.

Spice there is and to spare in "Canary Cottage"; fun-making of more than the usual risibility and ludicrous incidents without number, but it is perhaps the melodies that linger in the memory that make the strongest appeal and for the company, no better or more talented could be found for musical comedy purposes.

The return engagement brings back the same clever cast to the Macdonough. Trixie Friganza created as much merriment as ever as the "cook-lady" with the independent airs. Her xylophone solo played on a stove and an assortment of sauce pans is one of the side-splitters of a performance which abounds in genuine laughs. The sweet, effective singing of Dorothy Webb and Leola Lucey supported by a capable chorus, is another of the attractive features.

Charles Ruggles, as the much loved Jerry Summerfield, fills a role which fits him to perfection, as does also Herbert Corthell, a comedian of rare originality, whose musical comedy "souse" is a fine piece of comedy work. Others who contribute to the success of the comedy are Grace Ellsworth, Carl McCullough, the Edwards Brothers, Elsie Gordon, Olga Marwig and the famous chorus of canaries.

Call to Breakfast!

"I'VE STOPPED wasting breath to get my men down to breakfast," said this woman—and smiled; "Just one thing in the world will make them hurry—open the kitchen door so they can smell the coffee you're making!"

She uses Schilling's—which may have something to do with the success of her plan. You see, Schilling's is like other good coffees in being packed only ground, in vacuum-sealed tins. But—more than simply "good"—it has an extra fineness, an extra richness, and this is so perfectly preserved in the air-tight tins that the coffee flavors more cups per pound. That means—you can use Schilling's Coffee with economy.

STRICTLY PERSONAL

K. S. Guiterman, one of the controlling figures in the American Smelting corporation, and partner of the Guggenheims, will make Oakland his home in future. He and Mrs. Guiterman registered today as permanent guests at the Hotel Oakland, establishing themselves in a five-room suite in the hostelry.

Frank Hall, Oakland business man, also registered today as a permanent guest at the hotel.

Plans for carrying on rehearsals of the Alameda County Chorus, arranging big public concerts with the great singing organization, and making it one of the big features of artistic life in Oakland, are being perfected by the music committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Several meetings will be held to consider plans for making the chorus one of the important institutions in Oakland's city life. Alexander Stewart, director of the chorus, will confer with the committee.

"Billy" Trimble, one of the best known hotel clerks in Utah, formerly with the Healy House of Ogden, is registered at the Hotel Touraine.

Chas. H. Palmer, constable of Martinez, registered at the Hotel Touraine for a day or two, being in Oakland on official business.

F. A. Ccdy, one of the leading vineyardists of Madera, is at the Touraine.

Arthur E. Colby and Mrs. Colby are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter Sunday. Mrs. Colby was Louise Whitehead and formerly head of the language department of the Fremont High School. Colby is the division accountant of the Department of Public Health and Safety at the City Hall.

John Fechter, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., delivered an address before the Rotary Club at Fresno last night.

Eighteen of the "Canary Cottage" actors and actresses are registered at the St. Mark Hotel.

Thief Steals All Wealth of Family

When Mrs. Carrie Carter, 1460 Seventy-third avenue, reached for her purse while in a department store and discovered that it had either been lost or stolen she collapsed. Upon being revived she related that the $32 contained in the purse represented all the money in possession of the family, that her husband was out of employment and other shopkeepers raised a $5 contribution for her. The police are investigating.

Castor Beans Cause Death of S. D. Woman

SAN DIEGO, Cal., 3. — Miss Emma G. Anderson died today at her home in Old Town as the result of eating some castor beans several days ago. Shortly after eating the berries Miss Anderson became ill, but failed to call a doctor until the following day, when it was too late.

WOMEN'S GYMNASIUM OPENS.

A branch of the Berkeley women's gymnasium will be opened in Alameda tonight at Tucker Hall, in Park street, with Miss Hermine Hecht as instructor. NEW YORK STRIKE PLANS ABANDONED

Street Car Employees Left to Fight Battle Alone; Many Guards Withdrawn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3. — Satisfied that there is little further danger of violence in the subway as a result of the street railway strike, the police department today withdrew all policemen from strike duty on the underground trains. Similar action will be taken soon with regard to the elevated trains. Only one policeman instead of two, hereafter will be assigned to each surface car.

Shortly after the announcement three trains were attacked. A bullet fired at an elevated train clipped a piece off a coach. The attackers were soon dispersed.

Formally acknowledging the failure of the movement to cause a general suspension of labor in aid of the striking car men, the labor conference of Greater New York and vicinity have called upon the unions of the city to assess their members $1 each for the strikers' war chest. This call is expected to realize not less than $300,000.

The decision to abandon the pretense of a general suspension decided upon last week, followed the consideration of a long report reviewing the general situation. In this emphasis was laid upon the good intentions of the unions toward the car strikers and their sympathy for them at all times.

In the discussion was brought out the inability of the leaders to get their men out. Representatives of the United Board of Business Agents of the Building Trades of Manhattan and Long Island reported that none of their unions which had not previously voted to suspend had done so, and the board did not call them out because it found it lacked the necessary power.

Retired Miner May Face Murder Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3. — Following the coroner's inquest to be held tomorrow in the case of Jack Hunt, insurance broker and Olympic Club man slain Saturday night, a charge of murder will probably be placed against Theodore Fain, retired miner, 64 years old, who has admitted that he may have wielded the knife with which the crime was committed. Fain has become morose since his incarceration and is being specially watched.

His daughter, Alice Fain, whom he went to visit on Saturday night and whose absence is alleged to have been directly responsible for the tragedy, visited him again today and endeavored to cheer him. Fain said he might have stabbed Hunt. He said he had no recollection of having met Hunt but that he did recall having a struggle.

CHARGES EMBEZZLEMENT.

Frank Jello, an insurance man of 1706 Telegraph avenue, was arrested by Inspectors John Gannaw and W. F. Kyle last night on complaint of Mrs. A. P. Alston, 2617 San Pablo avenue. He is charged with misdemeanor embezzlement. Mrs. Alston alleges that Jello failed to remit to his company $47.50 which she had paid him on an insurance policy.

MORE MONEY, LESS WORK PROMISED

Chicago Packers and Garment Workers Benefit by Employers' Decision.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Wage increases or shorter hours were announced by the packers and garment firms here today to affect 60,000 workers, making an annual increase in payrolls of $5,000,000. The packers changes are to affect all plans of the firms involved in the United States.

Wilson & Co., Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co. and Libby, McNeil & Libby announced an increase of 2½ cents an hour on a ten-hour working day for all employees in the operating departments.

Members of the Wholesale Clothiers' Association will reduce working hours from fifty to forty-eight a week. Pay will remain the same and time and one-half will be paid for extra work. This will mean $1,000,000 increase in wages, because of overtime in busy seasons.

Attorney Montgomery Is Sued by Widow

Johanna S. Wisniewski, a widow of Berlin, Germany, is plaintiff in a long-distance suit against Attorney James P. Montgomery to recover $700 alleged due the estate of her husband, Frank Wisniewskie, who bequeathed property to Montgomery, ignoring his wife. The matter is under submission with Superior Judge Everett J. Brown.

The $700 is alleged due the widow on a loan she claims to have made to her husband. The estate was valued at $3389 and the attorney's share was approximately $2000.

Scout Masters to Meet at Headquarters

The second meeting of the Alameda County Scout Masters' Association will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the Oakland Council headquarters, 404 Eleventh street.

The adoption of the constitution, election of officers, formation of a life-saving corps and a First Aid lecture makes this meeting of such interest and importance that every "man scout" should be present. Prospective scout masters and others interested are welcome.

Last month's meeting was attended by 40 scout masters and assistants from Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, and this month notices have been sent to at least 50 men actively interested in the Scout movement.

Indians May Vote; But Not This Time

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—California Indians who reside off reservations and are property owners and taxpayers, may have a right to vote but they will be unable to cast their ballots next month. This was established today, when the Supreme Court continued for a month the mandamus proceedings to compel the county clerk of Lake county to register Ethan Anderson, an Indian.

Thanksgiving Date Change Desired

Kansas City Merchants Petition President

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 3.—A movement to place the next Thanksgiving Day on November 23 instead of November 30 was inaugurated here today by the Merchants' Association of Kansas City. A telegram to President Wilson requesting the earlier date and messages to retail organizations in twenty of the larger cities asked them to take similar action.

Real Estate Dealer Is Called by Death

Following an illness of several months, Joseph Wentworth Carse, Oakland realty broker, is dead at his home, 1136 First avenue. Carse, who was prominent in Oakland business circles, came to this city some time ago from Evanston, Wyoming, where he was a banker. He is survived by a widow, Harriet C. Carse, and four children, all of whom live in the east. He was forty-two years of age. Funeral arrangements are being made.

PAY PROBLEM OF RAILROADS PROBED

Interstate Commerce Commission and Postoffice Department Busy.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Investigation of the railway pay problem has been instituted, the Interstate Commerce Commission announced today and all railway common carriers have been made party to the proceeding. No dates for hearings have been set so far but the plan is to complete the work in time for a report to congress this winter.

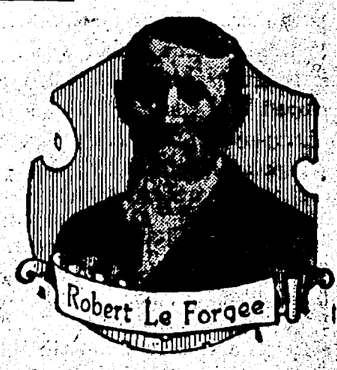

In the meantime the postoffice department is making a test by substituting the space basis for mail pay on 90 per cent of its service. Congress is preparing for a vigorous fight between the railroads and the department, the roads insisting upon the present weight system.

CHILD MAY RECOVER.

Odette Alanx, the 4-year-old daughter of Louis Alanx, 908 Franklin street, who was stricken with an attack of infantile paralysis six weeks ago, has so far recovered that she was today removed from the county infirmary to her home. Dr. C. A. Wills believes that the patient will soon have complete control of her limbs.

Says Simple Remedy Prolonged His Life

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Effective as a Remedy for Constipation.

Among older people the various organs of the body have a tendency to slow up and weaken, and this is usually first manifest in a pronounced inactivity of the bowels.

Good health is dependent on regularity in this important function; whenever there is the slightest indication of constipation a mild laxative should be taken to relieve the congestion and dispose of the accumulated waste. Cathartics or purgatives should not be employed, however; these are too violent in action and their effect is only temporary.

A mild laxative such as the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the ideal remedy. It is gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, without griping or other pain or discomfort, is pleasant to the taste, and can be obtained in any drug store.

Mr. Robert LeForgee, 918 Kirkwood Boulevard, Davenport, Iowa, says he has always had a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house for the past eighteen years, and that by using it occasionally as the need arises, and in this way keeping his health good, it has prolonged his life and brought ease and comfort.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists everywhere, and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle free of charge can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

INTEREST IN THE UNEMPLOYED.

Statisticians of the Department of Labor have suddenly exhibited an extraordinary interest in conditions of employment on the Pacific Coast and in California in particular. They claim to have discovered an unexpectedly high proportion of wage-earners out of work. In San Francisco it is estimated that 15,000 are wholly unemployed, and there are 68,335 wholly or partially unemployed. Assuming San Francisco to have a population of 500,000, there are 41 percent of the wage-earners either partially or entirely without work. The other coast cities show a proportionately high percentage of unemployment. The average percentage of idle in all the coast cities is 33.8.

Perhaps the estimates of the labor department officials are correct, but there is ample room for doubt. They are only estimates at best. The State employment bureau has placed some 25,000 men and women in employment during the last year and its great difficulty has been to find workers to fill the jobs. Of course there are always a large portion of job-seekers who cannot advantageously leave, and who do not wish to leave the city, and there are others who will accept jobs only in their own trades. But conditions have been such during the year as to indicate that there is no serious unemployment problem.

It is worthy of note that this activity of Department of Labor officials is displayed in the last few weeks before the presidential election. The Commissioner of Immigration, who hails from this State, is taking an especially lively interest in the matter. Recently he made overtures to the State Employment Bureau to consolidate its work with that of the federal bureau of employment. The State bureau has proved a positive success and the federal bureau has done little or nothing in California during the last three years. Officials of the State bureau, apparently mindful of the fact that their duty was to help the unemployed annually and daily, rather than quadrennially, informed Mr. Caminetti that they preferred to work independently, believing that affiliation with the federal bureau would mean a decided loss of benefit to the unemployed.

If the officials of the national administration have a lot of money to distribute for the benefit of the "unemployed" between now and November 7th they will experience no difficulty in finding willing recipients. But they ought to be able to accomplish their campaign objects without endeavoring to get control of and manipulate a State civil service bureau. If consolidation of the State and Federal bureaus is really desirable nothing will be lost in thinking it over for a month or five weeks. Let the proposal be renewed after the election and full consideration then given it.

PROFIT-SHARING FOR RAILWAY MEN.

Mr. B. F. Yoakum, president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, has just made public a letter which he wrote to President Wilson shortly before Mr. Wilson intervened in the negotiations between the railroad operators and the brotherhoods of operative employees. The letter did not appear attractive to the President, since it did not coincide with his own ideas, and interests in it survives only because it contains a suggestion that, coming from a railroad president, is somewhat startling.

The basis of Mr. Yoakum's proposal is a minimum wage for employees. His plan is that the employees receive, say, 45 cents of each dollar earned by the railroads (the Interstate Commerce Commission finds they now receive 44 cents) with a further participation in net earnings. In prosperous years this would mean that the workman would receive considerably more than the fixed wages, while in lean years he would be fully protected by the fixed minimum wage.

Such a system requires, of course, that a lot of details be worked out, but Mr. Yoakum seems to have given a deal of study to the matter and generally the idea has every appearance of being a sound one. Should it become necessary to scale wages downward during lean years there would be no danger of going below the fixed minimum. The courts have decided that labor has a first lien on railroads and they universally allow earnings or credit of railways in bankruptcy to take care of operating payrolls. This means that the courts have given the obligation to labor rank over first mortgage bonds and all other securities.

The Yoakum plan is virtually a proposal to put employees of railroads on a profit-sharing basis. So far as we have read it is the first suggestion for applying this system to railroads. It is worth consideration by operators and workers. It has proven successful wherever it has been given an honest trial. It would be too much to hope that the controversies between operators and employees have been definitely disposed of. They are certain to be revived again and in the near future. We predict that the Yoakum plan will ultimately get a hearing.

HIGH COST OF ELECTIONEERING.

The high water mark was reached in New York this month in the way of campaign expenditures in a senatorial contest, and it was only a primary fight at that. Uncle Ike Stephenson of Wisconsin, who spent between $80,000 and $90,000 in achieving his ambition to wear a senatorial toga must take a back seat. Even Senator Guggenheim is placed in the piker class. That the recent Bacon-Calder fight for the Republican nomination for United States Senator from the Imperial State of New York cost the contestants a total of $400,000 is the estimate made by those who possess inside information. A new record was made in the high cost of campaigning. What the Democratic senatorial primary contest cost has not been divulged.

Robert Bacon, the defeated candidate, spent by far the largest amount, according to reports. The figure is placed at $300,000. He is wealthy and was backed by many friends of large means. Calder, who is only fairly well-to-do, is reputed to have spent $40,000. This does not take into account sums expended by his supporters. It is claimed that this unusual sum can be easily expended in a New York primary contest without a single penny being misused or applied to any corrupt or improper purpose.

The Calder campaign managers sent out one postal to New York voters which cost alone $10,000, while three letters mailed from Bacon headquarters at different times cost approximately $30,000 each, or a total of $90,000. Page and half-page advertisements run in city and country newspapers called for a large outlay, necessary to secure proper publicity. Then there were organization expenses in the various counties to say nothing of the cost of meetings and the maintenance of adequate headquarters.

A federal statute prohibits a candidate for United States Senator from expending more than $10,000 on his primary and election. But like many other laws it contains an interesting qualifying clause which leaves an opening as wide as a church door. This is the clause referred to:

> Provided further, that money expended by any such candidate to meet and discharge any assessment, fee or charge made or levied upon candidates by the law of the State in which he resides, or for his necessary personal expenses, incurred for himself alone, for travel and subsistence, stationery and postage, writing or printing (other than in newspapers), and distributing letters, circulars and posters, and for telegraph and telephone service, SHALL NOT be regarded as an expenditure within the meaning of this section."

It can easily be seen that this makes the sky the limit. The New York State law requires publicity of expenditures and an accounting to the proper authorities, but it prescribes no limit which a candidate must observe.

The high cost of senatorships has apparently not been materially reduced by direct election by the people although the money is perhaps more widely distributed, which may be some compensation.

The New York Times, which is supporting President Wilson for re-election, declared on the eve of the New Jersey primary election that greatest interest from the national standpoint centered in the contest being waged by United States Senator James E. Martine and Attorney-General John W. Westcott for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Martine was opposed by the administration and Westcott supported. "This is the only instance which may be regarded as a test of President Wilson's strength in his own party in his own State," declared the Times. Martine won by a majority of two to one over the Chief Executive's close friend Westcott, who had twice placed Wilson in nomination for the presidency. Latest returns show the vote to be 30,000 for Martine and 15,000 for Westcott. A few more such "tests" and the gloom around Democratic national committee headquarters will be thick enough to cut.

Final accounting of the business transacted on the "Zone" at the 1915 exposition in San Francisco shows that the concessionnaires lost approximately $4,100,000. Thirty-five concessions went out of business during the progress of the exposition. The concession holders and operators were not the only losers. The millions of the patrons of the exposition lost every time they invested twenty-five or ten cents in the alleged amusement offerings. If the operators along the "Zone" had adopted early the policy of giving the public a fair return for its money they would have received a second call from many of the visitors to the exposition.

Official returns of the State election showed that Carl E. Milliken, Republican, was elected governor over Oakley C. Curtis, Democratic incumbent, by a majority of 13,598, in the largest total vote ever cast in Maine. The figures were: Milliken, 81,317; Curtis, 67,719. By polling more than 1 per cent of the total the Socialist party retained its place on the official ballot, while the Prohibitionists, with a total of 449, fell short of the number necessary to maintain their party standing.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Local announcement is made that the cost of shoe shines is to be doubled. Moreover, the economically minded who would make an old hat render longer service will be disagreeably surprised to learn that "rates for cleaning and pressing and for blocking hats will be advanced 25 per cent." The excuse offered for the increase of 100 per cent in the price charged for shining shoes is attributed to "the increased cost of paste and liquid materials," for which "the war" is held responsible. Yes—"the war!"—Los Angeles Express.

Tulare county is coming into its own at last, and though it has taken the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe a long time to realize how important is the county from an agricultural standpoint, they are both making amends by pushing the construction of new lines to completion. We quite understand that the citrus section looms quite big in the eyes of transportation officials and that is why so much work is being done by the two companies on the east side of the county.—Marysville Appeal.

Boys of the Marysville High school probably believed they were doing "something smart" when they appeared at the High school garbed in striped overalls and cheap shirts. Unconsciously they did do something worth while, and they were smarter than they knew. They probably will at once make amends. The overalls they wore were clean and neat. They served the purpose just as admirably and just as competently as would broadcloth. It is to be hoped that the boys will continue to wear those neat overalls to school.—Marysville Appeal.

PRESIDENTIAL ESCORT.

"The President's Own" (it would be the People's Own, really), a special squadron of cavalry to escort the President on state occasions, which General William E. Harvey of the District of Columbia proposes, would have seemed undemocratic in the days of Jefferson, but in these crowded and more dangerous times there is no reason why the President should not be guarded by mounted men when his public appearances attract multitudes of observers. Moreover, an escort of such a character is in keeping with the dignity of the presidenial office.—New York Sun.

IGNACE JAN PADEREWSKI.

(AN APPRECIATION.)

By WALTER HANDEL THORLEY, Organist Trinity Episcopal Church.

I suppose some twenty-five years have elapsed since I first met and heard M. Paderewski in London, at a concert of the Grosvenor Club, when I had the honor of being asked by him to turn over the pages of the piano parts of Rubinstein's 'cello sonata in D and the same composer's Trio in B-flat which he played in concert with Willy Hess and Carl Fuchs. He also played several solos, among them Liszt's Campanella, so I had ample opportunity to become acquainted with his marvelous powers at the outset of his career, for this was one of his first appearances in the metropolis.

I mention this to illustrate what I wish to state, which is that at his recital at Oakland Saturday I sought in vain for signs of any diminution of those powers, and this in spite of the malady which attacked his arms some years ago. The ease with which he surmounts the most appalling technical difficulties seems to be more marked than ever with the passing of years. But then he is nothing if not alert, so perhaps is continually finding new methods of mind and finger to aid him.

His recital Saturday was one great delight to all who attended it and if when playing the severe classics—Bach and Beethoven—at one moment he may have seemed to overstep the bounds set by the severe canons of art, at the best he made such magnificent amends that all criticism was transformed into ecstatic admiration. And in the romantic and modern schools he is surely inimitable and stands head and shoulders above all rivals—a very super-man among pianists. Didn't his playing of Schumann, Chopin and Liszt fully reveal this? So M. Paderewski placed us all under an immense debt of gratitude, and it was the overpowering desire to give expression to this that made us insist on recalling him time after time, to which, with his usual generosity, he responded by adding encore after encore; he played in all six, many of them pieces of the greatest importance. But surely, on the last of these occasions, his usual insight was for once at fault, in that he misconstrued our desire to once more thank him into an "Oliver-Twistian" demand for yet more, for the appearance on the platform of piano-moving men, instead, put a summary end to the afternoon's experiences.

PUSHED OFF.

My Uncle Jim was on the fence,
He said he didn't know
Just where in time of doubt intense
His influence ought to go.
They talked about the patriot zeal
In which he should be steeped.
He said 'twas such that made him feel
Like lookin' 'fore he leaped.

The other day a man came round
An' said, "We'll take a chance
Upon the wisdom all profound
Of views you may advance.
An' to take care of the expense
Of cash we'll pay a lump."
My Uncle Jim has left the fence
And now he's on the stump.

MATCHES WILL COST MORE.

The price of matches has advanced 15 per cent in this country during the European war, and a larger advance is forecast for the first of next year, because potash, glue, wool, amorphous phosphorus and paper cost the match and the match box makers more. Then it costs more to light the Democratic campaign cigars. That is not fair, because the Democrats, with Woodrow Wilson singing the high tenor in that promising choir, told us the necessities were to be cheaper if they were elected. Every little light shows up the Democrats as bad promisers.—Worcester Telegram.

CIRCUS WOMEN MAKE BIG SHOW POSSIBLE

WANDERERS HAVE 'LADY MANAGERS'

Work of Supervising Many of Most Important Departments in Traveling City Is Given Into the Hands of Gentler Sex

Equestrienne Has Full Charge of Horse Women, and Matron Controls Training of Many of Clever Tent Performers

There isn't a suffragette in the circus. And yet—

If there came a question into the minds of the inhabitants of that city of wanderers, known as the Sells-Floto Circus, which is to come to this city for a one-day's engagement on October 5, the women could have the vote or anything else they desired. That is, providing, of course, that managerial capacity counted for anything.

For the Sells-Floto Circus depends greatly upon its women. More than one branch of the big show is run almost exclusively by women, and run perfectly. For instance, there is Lucia Zora, who has charge of the training of all the elephants. There is Mrs. William Curtis, who personally supervises every inch of the wardrobe and designs the costumes, besides originating an act every now and then. There is Rosa Rosalind, the champion horse-to-horse somersault rider of the world, who has charge of all the other equestriennes in the show. There is Mrs. Charles Luckey, who controls all the aerial acts—and if that isn't enough, there is Mrs. Rhoda Royal, the horse trainer.

Every one of the twenty or more high school horses which perform in the hippodrome track of the Champion Shows of the World owes its education to Mrs. Royal. Jumping Jupiter, the auto hurdler; Rinaldo, the ballroom horse; Bathhouse John, Luckett and all the other champions of the sawdust ring have been taught their every trick by the smiling little woman of the hippodrome track. And they also owe their education to another big thing—the old adage of the early bird.

"I always train my horses very early in the morning," Mrs. Royal says. "Often I am working with them before daylight. I have found that a horse's mind is most receptive then—and when a mind is most receptive, that is the time to instill things into it."

Mrs. Royal and all the other "managers" will appear with the circus when it makes its appearance here. And of course they're going to be in the parade. In fact, a sample of everything in the circus will make its appearance in that parade at 10:30 circus morning, excepting, of course, Jess Willard. The champion, who is the feature of the show this year, is to appear only in the performances. Jess Willard will be introduced in his original role of cowboy, as well as the champion heavyweight of the world. Incidentally, he will give an exhibition of sparring with his boxing partner and illustrate just how he won the championship.

Her Heroism Defies Even Clinging Skirt

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 3. Without stopping to take off her skirt, Mrs. Sadie Carr of Brookville leaped into the Delaware river and saved a 19-year-old girl.

A Y. W. C. A. party is camping at Brookville and several members went swimming. Miss Jeannette Paul, a stenographer, became frightened when she found herself far from shore, and screamed. So did the other girls.

Mrs. Carr, who lives in a bungalow near by, ran out and saw the girl. Without a moment's hesitation she plunged in and brought Miss Paul to shore.

BIG CROWDS SEE CHINA VIA 'MOVIES'

Wonderful Travel Picture at Auditorium Continues to Draw Record Throngs; Films Show the Innermost Corners

Forbidden City Penetrated by Brodsky, Photographer, in Quest of Views; Secrets of Centuries Revealed to World

Appreciation of the marvelous travel picture, "A Trip Through China," is being shown by the record crowds that are visiting the Oakland Auditorium every afternoon and evening. Seldom does an opportunity come to see such a remarkable series of moving photographs of a foreign land, and The TRIBUNE is pleased to be able to offer to its readers the half-price coupons which enable the bearers to admission at less than the regular rates.

Benjamin Brodsky, the dauntless traveler and photographer, who spent years in the Orient gathering the views which are included in these ten reels, recked not of trouble or expense when he set out to obtain a permanent record of the wonders of the Celestial kingdom. He penetrated where few travelers have dared to go and secured pictures of places which had never before been recorded in a camera.

THE MYSTERY CITY.

Among these prohibited places—some of them taboo even to the Chinese themselves—is the Purple Forbidden City, that mysterious city within a city, the kernel of the nut, the heart of the great city of Peking. Through the courtesy of the late President Yuan Shih Kai, who wished his native land to become better known abroad, Brodsky was allowed to enter the sacrosanct walls and train his clicking camera upon the wonderful architecture and decorations of the Imperial Palace and other buildings.

Another marvel—not prohibited but difficult of access—is the Great Wall of China, that stupendous barrier built nearly two thousand years ago to protect the Chinese from the wilder tribes of the north. Forty feet high and thirty feet wide, it winds for 3800 miles over hill and dale, as amazing a monument of man's labor as the famous pyramids of Egypt. The photographer visited this wall at a point forty miles from Peking, where it sprawls its serpent-like length over a particularly desolate landscape.

MANY SUBJECTS.

There are hundreds of different subjects on this intensely interesting film and there is not space to enumerate them all. Fascinating scenery, quaint customs, primitive methods of labor and native peculiarities of dress are shown in detail. There are views of the terrible devastation of a typhoon which the photographer was fortunate enough to be upon the spot to obtain.

"A Trip Through China," is being shown daily at matinee and evening performances in the municipal auditorium, and will continue up to and including Tuesday, October 10. Watch for the coupons printed daily in The TRIBUNE and take advantage of the opportunity offered to see this unequaled picture at half price.

FREEHOLDERS TO MEET.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 3.—The board of freeholders will hold its weekly meeting tomorrow night. The revision committee will probably present portions of the charter already temporarily passed for final acceptance or rejection by the entire board.

Death Invites Girl, Weary of Life

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—"I am tired of the lights and music and the sham and even the smiles and the laughter," said Vera Emmons, a 28-year-old girl of 409 Ellis street, on reaching the Central Emergency Hospital following an attempt at suicide this morning. She had taken bi-chloride of mercury. The poison was swallowed in a spell of depression and a night of fun and frolic. Miss Emmons would add nothing to her statement than to say she was weary of the continual joy round. She has a chance of recovery.

Noted Women to Talk for Hughes in Ohio

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 3. — Twenty-five women who have distinguished themselves in the world's work will arrive in Cleveland this evening when the Hughes campaign train makes its first Ohio stop.

The Hughes envoys will hold a mass meeting for men and women. Owing to limited time, the only speakers may be Dr. Katherine Bement Davis, former commissioner of corrections in New York, and Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, wife of the former American charge d'affairs in Mexico.

BROOKLYN HANGING TO TOP; VICTORY ONLY 3 GAMES OFF

John McGraw Still Remains Robinson's Best Pal in Baseball.

By H. C. HAMILTON,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—John McGraw still stands today the best friend Wilbert Robinson has in baseball. But if winning a ball game at this crucial period in the fate of the Brooklyn Dodgers would have fractured that feeling, it is through no fault of McGraw's that he is still high in Robinson's estimation.

Despite the hardest efforts of McGraw and his cohorts the Brooklyn club is hanging to the top in the race for the honor and final blow of meeting the Boston Red Sox in the world's series. Philadelphia is now a full game behind, so Robbie has driven his charges into a position from where they will have a better chance at the windup, which now is only three games away for the Dodgers and four for the Phillies.

THREE GAMES LEFT.

The Dodgers have three contests left with the Giants and the Phillies will clash with the Braves four more times, two of these tilts are on the schedule for this afternoon.

The Dodgers have reached the peak of their efforts, but if they hold up now as they have in the past, their crowns are won.

Jack Coombs, star of years and now the greatest comeback in baseball, gets full credit for preserving the friendship between Robinson and Mcgraw. Faced by Ferdie Schupp, who rapidly is becoming the most feared lefthander in the National league, he righthanded his way to victory over the shutout route. It was the fifth time this year he has faced the Giants without a loss.

Coombs, iron-hearted as of old, pitched himself out of several precarious situations. Although the Giants several times had runners in a position to cross the rubber, the former Athletic successfully put on the screws each time. Down in the Quaker City where the Phillies and Braves were dividing a bargain bill at this crucial period of the campaign, another hero was being crowned. Grover Cleveland Alexander went into battle against George Stallings' crew and won his game. It was the sixteenth shutout victory of the season for Alexander.

ALEXANDER STILL THERE.

The great Philadelphia pitcher has done something in the last two weeks that few pitchers of his age would be willing to attempt. Just before the Phillies and Dodgers clashed last week at Ebbetts' Field, Alexander pitched and won both games of a double-header. Thursday he went to the mound again and downed the Dodgers. Saturday he tried it again and lost. And yesterday, with only a day of rest, he came back and turned the Braves back without a run, allowing only three hits. Alexander has made good his promise to work every other day if necessary to win the pennant for Philadelphia. And he is ready to work again tomorrow.

The Dodgers have decidedly the better of the situation, as it stands today. If they win their remaining trio of contests with the Giants, the glory will be with them. But if the Giants take two of the remaining contests and the Phillies succeed in winning three of their four with the Braves, Pat Moran and Bill Carrigan will be the rival managers in the world's series.

The Dodgers have the "edge" mainly because Alexander and Ferdie Schupp have been put out of the way for a day or so. Pat Moran must depend on Eppa Rixey or Erskine Mayer to win for him this afternoon and, if reports are true, Rixey almost brained himself yesterday when he tried to lift the Philly bench by a sudden punch with his head.

The Dodgers still have Sherrod Smith, Larry Chenev, Rube Marquard and Jeff Pfeffer to fling at the Giants.

"DUMB" DAN MORGAN COMES TO BAT

New York, Sept. 27, 1916.
Sporting Editor, TRIBUNE:

Dear Sir: Battling Levinsky, who has whipped every heavyweight in the world, including Jack Dillon, is now ready to defend the world's title against all comers.

Jess Willard, who now weighs nearly 300 pounds, is considered a circus freak and not a champion, and that means that Battling Levinsky, who has whipped every heavyweight, is entitled to call himself the heavyweight champion.

Levinski is ready at all times to box either white or black, and that means that he will be without doubt one of the most popular champions that ever lived. He stands ready to box thirty or forty times a year, and he don't want $50,000 guarantees. The public always gets its money's work in scientific boxing, speed and gameness when Battling Levinsky steps into the ring. Sincerely,

DAN MORGAN.

WILLIAMS OUTPOINTS BENNY KAUFMAN

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—Kid Williams, the bantamweight champion of the world, outclassed Benny Kaufman, Philadelphia's best bantamweight, in six rounds here last night. After the third round Kaufman weakened rapidly from the effects of terrific body punches, which the champion appeared to place at will.

A short right hook under the heart started Kaufman going and from then until the finish Williams danced around him landing many effective blows to the head and body.

YAMADA VICTOR OVER MORNINGSTAR

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 3.—Koji Yamada, the brilliant Japanese billiard champion defeated Ora Morningstar, former title holder, in the first of their three game series at 18.2 balk line billiards, played here last night, the score being 300 to 224.

Yamada made a high run of 188 in the eighth inning, while Morningstar's high run, made in the third inning was 102. Morningstar got a long lead on his opponent but the latter overhauled him in the middle of the game and never was headed thereafter.

Reading the Green

Yesterday's big league hero was Eppa Rixey. Although he didn't get into a ball game, Rixey heroically tried to save himself injury by jumping out of the way of a thrown ball and almost fractured the top of the Phillies' dugout.

Steamer Al Demaree pitched a good game, good enough for most any championship team to win behind but Reulbach was just that much better and the Braves got an even break.

Luderus and Whitted set the Braves down in the first game in which Alexander allowed only three hits and no runs.

The Red Sox didn't have to but they went out and trimmed the Athletics.

Shore and Jones divided the pitching duties for the champions.

Bob Shawkey and his red flannel shirt took the opening game of the final series between Washington and the Yankees. Home Run Baker got one extra base hit and it was only a triple.

Jack Coombs snatched the calcium from Rube Marquard when he blanked the Giants.

Fernie Schupp deserved a runless tie, but his fellow Giants fell down on the job of making runs.

Kauff fanned with the bases full.

The 14th regiment, including "Bum," a diminutive burro, the regiment's mascot, saw the game and then showed the Brooklynites how they learned to drill down on the border.

DUCK SEASON WILL OPEN OCT. 15

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Oct. 3.—Speculation as to the date of the opening of the duck shooting seaon was ended here yesterday, when George Neale, assistant commissioner of the California State Fish and Game Commission, stated that the closed season would end October 14, and that on the following day nimrods would be legally entitled to commence the fall shooting. This ruling was in accordance with the prevailing state law, Neale said.

The quandrary arose when an Eastern arms company distributed a circular which said that the federal law proclaimed that the season did not open until October 16.

WESTERN LEAGUE NO MONEY MAKER

DENVER, Col., Oct. 2.—The annual meeting of the Western League at Lincoln, Neb., October 3, promises to develop a spirited contest between Wichita and Colorado Springs for a place in next year's circuit. Colorado Springs boosters are planning to be in Lincoln in force to present their claims. John Zehrung, president of the league, has been in Colorado for several weeks, working up interest.

Wichita is depending somewhat upon Frank Isabell of Des Moines to land a berth for the Kansas City club next season. Isbell now owns a one-half interest in the Des Moines club, but is said to have told friends he was considering selling his Des Moines holdings. In such an event he might return to Wichita next season. Isbell is one of the few men who ever made money in Wichita.

The season just closed has been unprofitable for most of the clubs, according to Hugh L. Jones, owner of the Denver franchise. Omaha was the only team to make money. Lincoln is said to have broken even, while the other teams all had balances on the wrong side of the ledger.

The league meeting, in addition to selecting a circuit for next year, will elect a president. Zehrung is a candidate for re-election.

OLYMPICS CHALLENGE RIVAL CLUBMEN

John C. Rohlfs, chairman of the Transportation Club athletic committee, has challenged the crack Olympic Club baseball team to play a game of baseball for a big dinner. Baseball Commissioner Bart Burke of the Olympic Club has accepted the challenge. Rohlfs has appointed George G. Fraser manager of the Transportation team.

The date of the game has not been set. It will take place either at Ewing Field or Grove street grounds, Oakland, in about five weeks.

Among the players of the two organizations are Percy Merritt, William Grimmelman, J. J. Mitchell, Arthur Nuhl, Jack Kennedy, Dudley Sales, Jim McGrath, Jimmie Riordan, Eddie Benn, Ed Pomeroy, John C. Rohlfs, George Erlin, Bill Lange, Frank Foran, J. G. Melvin, Reine Schwerin, J. Black, Chauncey Trumatola, E. Ebner.

The banqueters will line up as follows:

Olympic Club—William F. Humphrey, president; Frank J. Foran, secretary; Richard J. Tobin, treasurer; Thomas Alton, W. H. Crocker, T. I. Fitzpatrick, J. R. Haulfy, E. G. McConnell, Sam N. Rucker, James Woods, directors. Athletic committee, E. G. McConnell, W. R. Berry, John Elliott, T. T. Fitzpatrick, Louis Lane.

Transportation Club—Joseph H. Handlon, president; J. G. Melvin, secretary; B. H. Torney, treasurer; F. E. Batturs, Jay W. Adams, Henry Avila, H. A. Buck, H. R. Dorr, James A. Keller, J. H. Lyman, directors. Athletic committee, J. C. Rohlfs, R. S. Durkee, H. B. Green, E. W. Dodge, F. W. Gomph.

PREP TEAMS TO START THEIR SEASON

Alameda county athletic followers will have two big prep school games served up to them this week. On Thursday, at Grove street park, the Oakland Technical High School fifteen will make its first official appearance of the season, stacking up against Otto Rittler's fighting team of Alamedans. Rittler's team has defeated Fremont and Oakland and the popular coach of the Encinal City team has hopes of trouncing the Tech ruggers.

On Friday, Berkeley High will start the ball a-rolling. Berkeley will face her ancient rivals, Oakland High. Their performance will be watched closely, as Berkeley, with Tech, are expected to fight it out for the State rugby championship. Both games will be played at Grove street park.

Will 'Dutch' Stop 'Em Again?

"DUTCH" LEONARD, Star Southpaw of American League, Who Is Boston's Hope for the World's Baseball Title

"Dutch" Leonard, star portsider of Ban Johnson's circuit, is scheduled to grab another nice chunk of world's series coin. Also, Leonard is scheduled to pitch at least two games in the coming world's series and upon his mighty left arm will rest the chances of the Hub town team in the series which will commence this Saturday.

Leonard, like Duffy Lewis and Harry Hooper, is a St. Mary's boy. His masterly twirling against the Phillies last year accounted in a great deal for the victory of Garrigan's men and this past season he has pitched wonderful ball, too. So he is expected to repeat his last year's performance.

With "Long" Shore, "Babe" Ruth, George Foster and Carl Mays backing him up, the Boston Club's pitching staff is considered the greatest in baseball. Manager Carrigan is depending upon this staff to bring home the 1916 title, with Leonard having the most important task of the lot.

YANKEES TURNING ATTENTION TO 1917 PENNANT PROSPECTS

Donovan's Club Holds Major League Record for Hard Luck.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3. — Although the New York Yankees cannot win a pennant this year, Bill Donovan, manager of the club, is confident and hopeful for the coming campaign. And, unlike most managerial cries of "next year," Donovan appears to have something upon which to base his claims.

The Yankees probably hold the major league record for hard luck. They started the year like world-beaters and then injuries began to wreck them. Nearly every regular on the club has been out for some reason or another. With the team in first place the stars began to fade and the descent began. The result was a bare claim to first division honors.

Nick Cullop, George Mogridge and Ray Caldwell were of no use to the club just when their services meant the most. Likewise, Frank Baker was out of the lineup and his slugging was sorely missed. Then Lee Magee, Fritz Maisel and Frank Gilhooley were laid up and finally Hughie High was skidded out of the lineup with an injury. About the only department which hasn't suffered greatly is the catching staff and even there Leslie Nunamaker was laid off by sickness for a short time.

If injuries and illness do not overtake the club next year, some one is going to play mighty good baseball to beat the Yanks out of the world's series. The Yankee infield, with Pipp at first, Gedeon at second, Peckinpaugh at shortstop, and Baker at third, is one of the best in the league. Second base is the weakest position of the quartet and Donovan expects Gedeon to be a greatly improved player next spring.

There are no faster outfielders than Maisel, Gilhooley and Magee, although Donovan is thinking seriously of placing Maisel at second base next year. If he does he still has Hendrix and High, two fleet-footed fly-chasers, to rely upon.

The pitching staff is excellent, with Cullop, Fisher, Mogridge, Shawkey, Russell and Love to send to the mound.

Young Al Walters is one of the greatest catchers in the leagues, in spite of his youth and his conceit. Nunamaker is dependable, and in Alexander the Yanks have the making of a star.

Donovan expects to have a reserve force next year strong enough to fill the places of his stars in an acceptable manner if injuries again beset the club.

BASEBALL'S CABINET IN CONFERENCE

NEW YORK, Oct. 3. — The National baseball commission met here today in the first of a series of meetings which will arrange details for the world's baseball championship clashes. Garry Herrmann, president of the commission, was first to arrive and when he couldn't locate his colleagues, President Johnson of the American league and President Tener of the National, he announced a postponement until tomorrow. When Johnson and Tener showed up later it was decided to meet at once.

No member of the national commission would confirm the rumor that the formality of tossing a coin would be dispensed with in deciding which city would have the opening game of the series if Philadelphia wins the National league pennant.

Two schedules probably will be arranged, one providing for a Brooklyn victory in the close National league finish and the other for Philadelphia.

Unless Salt Lake shows a remarkable reversal of the form displayed in recent series, and Portland wins an exceptional percentage of its games, the Coast League pennant race seems due to continue a Los Angeles and Vernon affair, culminating the week ending October 29 with Vernon as the home team entertaining Los Angeles at Washington park.

ANGELS CONCEDED TO BE WINNERS HERE

Interest in Coast league baseball will be somewhat overshadowed the next fortnight by the world's series. Most fans are willing to concede the Coast league pennant to Los Angeles and second place to Vernon. No one cares much how the other clubs finish. The Angels have a lead of five and one-half games over their nearest rival, and they are running so smoothly that there does not seem much chance of their losing out. Nothing short of a railroad wreck will put the Angels out of the lead.

Manager Del Howard expects to buy a good many ball players this winter. Most of the profits of the club will be used for the acquisition of new talent. Billy Lane and Clinton Prough seem the only ones sure of their 1917 berths. The others will have to prove their value in the training camp in competition with major leaguers.

Howard proved when boss of the Seals that he has considerable faith in the International league. It was a club built up by Howard that won the pennant last year for San Francisco.

RED SOX TO STUDY BRAVES' FIELD

BOSTON, Oct. 3. — Bill Carrigan and his crew of Red Sox champions will study the lights and shadows of Braves' Field this afternoon, while they whale away light-heartedly at the offerings of Joe Bush and Young Myers in a double bill with the Athletics, ending the American league season here. A record-breaking crowd is expected to see the Red Sox in their last game before the coming clash.

President Lannin, although busy with the tickets and other details, is bending every effort to have the first games played here because of the tremendous receipts he feels will be taken in.

KENTUCKY FUTURITY ON CARD TODAY

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 3. — The Kentucky futurity for three year olds worth $14,000, the richest light harness race in the world, was the principal event on the program for the second day of the grand circuit racing here today.

Volga, the champion 3-year-old filly, was expected to be the favorite in that race. Others entered were Harrod's Creek, Native Judge, Expressive Lou, Sangaree, Maja, Suildine, Binken Silk, Bintara and Preston Burch were others.

Other races on the card were a 2:06, value $1200; 2:15 trot and 2:05 pace, each worth $1000.

G. W. P. TEAM WINS.

The Oakland Great Western Power Company team outclassed the transbay outfit last Sunday, winning by a score of 13 to 5. Hard hitting in the late innings decided the fray.

TREASURER HOLDS BALANCE.

MARTINEZ, Oct. 3.—At the beginning of business this month there was a balance of cash on hand in the county treasurer's office of $296,531.05, which, according to Treasurer J. Rio Baker, is a good showing for this season of the year.

OAKLAND WOMEN COMING TO FRONT IN WATER WORLD

Merritt Hospital Nurses Form Swiming Club for Winter Season.

By RICHARD DUNGAN, Piedmont A. C. Coach.

Much talk has been made of the interest Oakland men have taken in swimming this year, but little has been said about the strides women have made in watermanship. In this city more women have interested themselves in things aquatic than in any other community on the Pacific coast. This winter promises to be a veritable season of splashing if the indications of the women's clubs and organizations mean anything.

Foremost among the feminine units to take an active interest in swimming are the Merritt hospital nurses, who have formed a Merritt-Piedmont Swimming club for the winter season. The motive for this organization is not entirely a divertive one for the nurses plan to take a series of lessons and practical instruction in life saving and resuscitation for the Piedmont swimming club members. This club, it will be remembered, has pledged itself to give free instruction to the Oakland public in the important art of handling drowning persons.

Another younger group to practice mermaiding is the swimming club of Polytechnic high school, whose motto is learn to swim in the winter for the coming summer. A little premature, perhaps, but a fair enough preparedness slogan. Sixty girls have joined the new club, and a flourishing organization is assured.

While the outdoor pools at the university "cream and mantle" in the cold fall and winter weather, the co-eds of the Berkeley college will continue their mealntine adventures at Piedmont, having been granted an extra rate.

From the great number of girls who have taken to the water this year a group of several mermaids ready for competition has been developed. Miss Frieda Brevick, Miss Ebba Matson, Miss Mabel Green, Miss Edith Vannuchi, and Mrs. Walter Spencer are among those ready to answer the starters' guns in coming races.

AL NORTON WILL FACE BILL SCHAEFER

Al Norton, the shifty heavyweight mauler, will get a chance of proving his real worth on Wednesday night after next, for Promoter Tommy Simpson of the West Oakland Club has signed him to meet "Wild" Bill Schaefer. Schaefer has been a trial horse for the local heavies and Norton believes that he will knock Schaefer out.

Willie Webb will meet Stanley Jones, the transbay middle, in one of the specials.

10 WORLD SERIES VETERANS WILL BE IN RED SOX RANKS

Carrigan's Pitchers Figure to Win the Flag for Boston

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Of the seventeen players who represented the Boston American League Club in the famous eight-game world's series with the New York Nationals in 1912 less than ten will be seen in the coming series to be staged before the end of the week. Counting the present season the Red Sox have won three pennants and figured in three world's series in the past five years. Victors over the New York Giants in the stirring struggle of 1912 by four games to three with a tie contest thrown in for good measure, the Red Sox added to their prestige in 1915 by sweeping through the Philadelphia Nationals to a world's championship, four games to one.

In the 1912 series Outfielders Hooper and Lewis were the same fast fielding, hard-hitting players they are today. Gardner, the present third baseman, guarded the same sack; Cady and Carrigan worked behind the home plate and Utility Outfielder Henriksen figured as an emergency hitter, but did not play in the field. All these members of the Red Sox combination participated in the series of a year ago in addition to Janvrin, Barry, Hoblitzel, Gainor, Scott, Thomas, Shore, Ruth, Leonard and Foster.

In 1912 the Boston team had a world's series batting average of .220 and a fielding average of .958. In 1915 the Red Sox batted .264 and fielded .978. This season the averages show that up to within a few days of the close of the pennant race the Boston club, considered as a whole, was batting .248 and fielding .971. Taking the figures for the two world's series and the work of the team for the major part of the 1916 pennant season the grand average will be found to be batting .244 and the fielding average .969.

The opinion is held in some quarters that the outfield, with Tris Speaker missing from the line-up is not as strong as the one that played in the 1912 and the 1915 series. The absence of Barry from second base, due to injuries, is thought by certain critics to have weakened the infield defense and offense during the closing weeks of the race, and it is contended that should he be able to participate in the series play the team will be far more formidable than with Barry on the bench.

There is but one opinion regarding the pitching staff, however, and a glance at the work of the twirlers, who have borne the burden of the hurling, and their records for the present season will indicate clearly the reason for the Boston fan's optimism regarding the outcome of the coming contests. The averages of the leading pitchers, both on the basis of games won and lost and earned runs per game by opponents, are as follows:

Shore, .600 and 2.75; Mays, .615 and 2.30; Ruth, .667 and 2.01; Leonard, .613 and 2.37; Foster, .591 and 3.07; Gregg, .333 and 3.23.

LIVING COST CONTINUES TO AVIATE

Nearly Every Necessary Article for Dinner Table Jumps As Year Grows Old, According to Dept. of Agriculture

Increases of 12 to 70 Per Cent Shown by Federal Experts After Investigation Covering All Sections of the Country

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Marked increase in the cost of living is shown in the rising tendency of prices of foodstuffs on October 1, reports of which are just being received at the department of agriculture from the principal markets of the country.

With flour selling at prices higher than at any time since the Civil War, due principally to the shortage of the wheat crop this year, the cost of potatoes has mounted for the same reason.

Meat prices continue to advance with prices being paid producers of meat animals showing almost 24 per cent over what was paid a year ago. Butter, eggs and cheese all are selling at higher prices for this time of the year than they were last year, and beans show an increase of more than 70 per cent over a year ago because of the short crop. Onions are more than 50 per cent higher and cabbage more than 40 per cent higher.

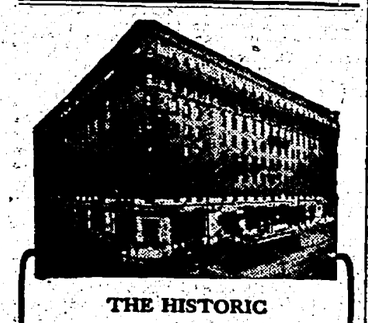

Prices paid to producers of farm products increased 9.3 per cent during August while during the last eight years these prices have shown a decrease of about 7.1 during the month. September began with the index figures of these prices 21.9 per cent higher than it was a year ago.

Butter was selling about 12 per cent higher than a year ago, according to the latest statistic tables today at the department of agriculture. The price was 1 cent a pound higher than it had been in the last eight years at this time of the year. Eggs were selling 5 cents a dozen higher than last year.

Hogs were selling 25 per cent higher than a year ago; beef cattle more than 7 per cent higher. Veal calves more than 10 per cent higher; sheep more than 8 per cent higher, and lambs more than 20 per cent higher.

'TWAS A GLORIOUS HOLIDAY.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Oct. 3.—John J. Neal, station agent, worked thirty years without a vacation, so that when he took one it would be a dandy. He took it last week—a six-hour visit with a farm friend. John couldn't stand idleness.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.
In the District Court of the United States, in and for the Northern District of California.
In the matter of John Gennick, bankrupt.
Notice of Trustee's sale of personal property.
The undersigned offers for sale a certain "going butcher business complete," including cash register, scales, meat blocks, refrigerator, etc., which belongs to the estate of John Gennick, bankrupt, formerly conducting business under the name of New California Market, 1724 Telegraph avenue, Oakland, which said personal property is subject to a chattel mortgage of $2000.
An inventory of said property may be seen at the office of the Dean Law and Collection Co., 303 Bacon Bldg., Oakland, California.
Sealed bids for said property as a whole are solicited to be addressed and delivered to the undersigned, care of the Referee in Bankruptcy, 704 Union Savings Bank Bldg., Oakland, California, on Friday, the 6th day of October, 1916, at the hour of two o'clock P. M., when and where said bids will be opened and passed upon.
Said bids must be accompanied by a certified check for ten per cent of the amount offered. Right reserved to reject any and all bids.
Sale subject to the confirmation of the Court.
For further information
W. E. DEAN,
Trustee of the estate of John Gennick, 303 Bacon Bldg., Oakland, Cal.; phone Oakland 48.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
This is to certify that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted for by my wife, Pearl Carter Khan on and after this second day of October, 1916.

My wife, Rose Davis Pauker, having left my bed and board, I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by her on and after this 2nd day of October, 1916.
(Signed) M. PAUKER.

DOCK & DECK

With a cargo of 1738 tons of coke the four-masted barkentine Alta arrived from Snydney, Australia, after a passage of 66 days. Captain Eidsowy reports good weather all the passage. This is the first coke cargo to reach this port for several months, and is consigned to C. Henry Smith.

Lumber arrivals today are the steamer Adeline Smith from Coos Bay, 1,750,000 feet; steamer Arctic from Fort Bragg, 302,000; steamer Del Norte from Crescent City, 300,000; steamer John Poulsen from Astoria, 725,000; steamer Caspar from Caspar, 337,000; steamer Phoenix from Bandon, 190,000; steamer Coronado from Gray's harbor, 620,000 feet of lumber.

The schooner Roy Sommers, which left Oakland for Bellingham and went ashore, was pulled off the beach and is reported to be slightly damaged. She arrived in Oakland harbor on September 3, with 1991 barrels of salmon from Alaska.

IRWIN CARRIES LIME CARGO.
With 4160 barrels of lime the schooner W. G. Irwin arrived here this morning from Roche Harbor, under command of Captain John Kitchen.

The schooner Gallilee is on the drydock of Moore & Scott, getting a general overhauling, after returning from Behring Sea, Alaska, with a cargo of codfish.

After towing barge 95 of the Standard Oil company around the world for the past three years, the steamer Richmond, owned by the same company, was compelled to send a wireless in port for a tug to tow her back. The Richmond and her tow left Point Richmond on Sunday morning with oil cargoes for Seattle, Washington. When they got outside the Golden Gate the barge had trouble with her steering gear, and was compelled to return. She is now at the Union Iron Works being overhauled.

RECEIVE REWARD FOR RESCUE WORK.
A. D. Winegar and Marion Qumwalt, who picked up the life boats of the steamer Congress, which broke adrift, were awarded $400 for their trouble. After landing the passengers safely the crew brought the lifeboats back to the vessel and while being towed into port they broke adrift.

Change of masters registered in United States custom house: Captain W. H. Stofen, steamer Pilot; Captain Al Christensen, steamer Tartar; Captain C. H. McAllister, steamer Belvedere; Captain George E. Bridgett, steamer D. G. Scofield; Captain Hans P. Jensen, ship Bohemia; Captain Chas. Madeson, steamer W. S. Porter; Captain D. L. Larkin, steamer Four Sisters.

The Congress steams for Seattle today. She left Coos Bay in tow of the tugs Gleaner and Oneonta, who took her across the bar. One of the tugs will escort her to her northern port. She had a new wireless installed and is going under her own steam.

Note—In the above tabulations of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning.

The columns of heights give the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart sounding. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths, unless preceded by a minus sign, or dash (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given on the chart.

Comment & Opinion On—

TELEPHONE FINANCE

ARGENTINE BOND OFFER

TELEPHONE finance in California has again occupied the attention of the State Railroad Commission, which has just handed down its decision in the application for consolidation of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Santa Barbara county and the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Santa Barbara, and the local exchange property of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The Pacific will retain its long distance line, otherwise there is a monopoly granted to the new concern, which will be known as the Santa Barbara Telephone Company.

Ever since the commission rendered its decision in the San Jose case, in which it eliminated the payment of a royalty to the patentee company, the American, and fixed rates accordingly, much interest has attached to telephone rulings. In the present case the only interest of the Pacific at Santa Barbara was the surrender of its exchange equipment.

Commenting on the telephone situation in Santa Barbara county, the railroad commission says:

"We have here a proceeding in which the telephone companies which have been competing with one another, as well as the public in the territory affected, are agreed in desiring a consolidation of the existing telephone properties. That the service, both local and long distance, will be extended is clear. The rates which we are authorizing seem to be just and reasonable, on the facts now at our command, for the service to be performed. The amount and character of securities to be issued by the Santa Barbara Company must be made reasonable before the consolidation can become effective, so that the rate payors of the future will not be burdened by reason of excessive interest and dividend payments anticipated by the parties from an excessive amount of securities now authorized."

The commission makes an exhaustive analysis of the financial condition of each of the three existing companies and of the financial and physical conditions which will be brought about by the consolidation. It finds that there will be a net profit of only about $7000, remaining for the payment of dividends on capital stock. The railroad commission finds that the contemplated issue of $433,000 of preferred stock and $66,500 of common stock by the Santa Barbara Telephone Company is too large and directs a reduction of the stock issue before consolidation will be permitted.

In this decision the commission announces the principles which it will apply in applications for telephone consolidations.

Referring to the rates to be authorized, the railroad commission says:

We believe that the Santa Barbara Company should be authorized to charge reasonable rates for the classes of service which it intends to give, even though as a result of the severe competition heretofore existing certain of the existing rates are lower than those authorized. It occurs to us that if the existing telephone companies, instead of consolidating should ask the railroad commission to increase their rates, the commission would be obliged to authorize some increases in any event. We are of the opinion that the Santa Barbara Company may be authorized to charge such rates as are just and normal rates, having in mind the rates being charged in communities having the number of subscribers which the Santa Barbara Company will have in its various exchanges, under telephonic conditions as similar as possible to those which exist in the territory here under consideration, assuming that service is rendered by a single telephone company and not by two competing companies. And we are further of the opinion that the amount of securities which the Santa Barbara Company should be authorized to issue should not exceed such securities as are reasonable in view of the net revenue which can reasonably be expected from rates which are normal under a single telephone system not having the duplications which exist in the property of the three existing telephone companies.

LOS ANGELES SITUATION.

The Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company has filed with the railroad commission an application for authority for the sale and conveyance of its property in Los Angeles county to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company is selling all its property to the Southern California Telephone Company, as is also the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, and this conveyance is part of the procedure. The Sunset Company has not operated any property in a number of years, but has leased its system to the Pacific company.

NATIONAL CITY OFFER.

The National City Company having taken over the N. W. Halsey & Co. business, announces an offer of £1,000,000 Argentine five-year 6% treasury gold bonds, due May 15, 1920.

The entire issue consists of $25,000,000, offered in the United States of America, and £5,000,000 offered in England in 1915; both sterling and dollar bonds being of substantially similar tenor and content.

On or after May 15, 1917, sterling and dollar bonds will be interchangeable between London and New York at the fixed rate of $4.86 per pound sterling, the expense of any new stamps which may be required to be borne by the holder. As coupon periods will occur before the sterling and dollar bonds become interchangeable, the National City Company is arranging to detach the sterling coupons falling due November 15, 1916, and May 15, 1917, and in their place attach coupons for proper amounts payable in United States gold dollars at the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, with which the necessary funds will be deposited.

The price is 100 and accrued interest, netting a straight 6% on the investment.

Cyrus Peirce, one of the founders of N. W. Halsey & Co. on this coast, announced yesterday his organization of a new firm of investment bankers under the style or title of Cyrus Peirce & Co. In addition to Peirce himself the new corporation includes a number of local capitalists of wealth and standing. The new bond firm is installed in sumptuous offices on the fourth floor of the Insurance Exchange.

The first work which received Peirce's personal attention in San Francisco was the foundation of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, in which he acted as the personal representative of N. W. Halsey.

BLYTH, WITTER & CO. BID.

Blyth, Witter & Co. of San Francisco were the successful bidders for the Martinez grammar school bonds. The $51,000 worth of bonds were bid in at the remarkably high premium of $3944, and it is needless to say that the county officials and trustees of the Martinez grammar school are elated.

There were a number of other bidders for the bonds. Both Martinez banks submitted bids, the Bank of Martinez and the First National. The State Board of Control offered $2200 for the bonds.

Other bidders were William R. Staats, $3358; Anglo and London Paris National Bank, $3160.98; E. H. Rollins, $3627; Girvin & Miller, $3501; F. M. Brown & Co., $3211; Lumberman's Trust Company, $3326; and N. W. Halsey & Co., $3661.60.

MOJAVE TUNGSTEN.

The Mojave Tungsten Company announces that seven of its thirty-two claims at Tungsten, Cal., are in full operation, and that Edwin E. Chase of Denver, the consulting engineer of the company, is visiting the property to lay plans for extending development work and to still further increase output. Nineteen shipments of high grade wolframite concentrates were made during July and August.

INDUSTRIALS SHOW FIRM IN TRADING

Equipment and Motors Follow Lead With Sugar and Gas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Industrials, motors and equipments, together with sugars and gas shares, were conspicuous in the mixed dealings of the forenoon, certain speculative favorites again reflecting bearish opposition. Steel yielded over a point. General Motors made a new record on its 9 point advance to 753. Increased selling caused fresh irregularity at midday. Bonds were firm.

Minor changes, mainly upward, prevailed at the opening, trading, however, embracing more than the usual number of issues. The more striking exceptions included American Locomotive, which rose 2 points, with advances of 1 to 2 in other equipments and industrials. Marines were slightly lower, but the railway list gained fractions to over a point under the lead of prices and Northwestern issues.

OPINION.

Spencer-Trask—Caution should be exercised, even with prospects as favorable as they are. U. S. Steel is reported to again be honeycombed with stop-loss orders for bull account. Specialists are said to have buying orders on a scale down. Commission house gossip in some quarters of the street seems to be very confident that New York Central will be taken up and advanced some time this week and sent well toward 120. The "pep" is lacking from the industrial list generally.

CHICAGO WHEAT PIT

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—December wheat reached its record high price this season today at $1.58⅝. Continued reports of drought in Argentina and sharp advances in Liverpool cables were chiefly responsible. December was up ½c at $1.58⅜; May up ¾c, at $1.58.

Corn had a strong undertone. Good buying in the face of light offerings caused slight upward tendencies. December was up ½c, at 74⅞c; May up ¼c, at 77⅜c.

Oats showed a slight falling off because of the large supplies visible. December was down ⅛c, at 48¾c; May down ⅛c, at 51¾c.

Provisions were sharply lower on falling hog prices at the yards.

Widening of the drought stricken region in Argentina, with reports of crop losses becoming more and more severe, sent wheat soaring today.

Kansas City advices telling of gains tended later to bring about a still greater advance. The close was firm, 2@2⅛c to 2¼c net higher, with December at $1.58⅝ and May at $1.57¾@1.57⅞.

Assertions by a leading corn expert that in the last month the domestic yield of corn had been enlarged 21,000,000 bushels failed to make much impression. The close was steady at ⅛@⅜@¾c net advance. Close:

Wheat—May, 1.56¾.
Corn—Dec., 74½c; May, 77⅛c.
Oats—Dec., 48¾c; May, 51¾c.
Pork—Dec., $22.20; Jan., $21.95.
Lard—Dec., $13.30; Jan., $12.95.
Ribs—Jan., $11.92.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Wheat firm; no trading. Barley, May, $1.84¾; December, $1.82¼ bid, $1.83 asked.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 3.—Wheat strong; no trading. Spot bids, 1@2c higher. Bluestem, $1.36; Forty-fold $1.30; Club $1.28; Red Fife, $1.30; Red Russian, $1.27.

Morris, Wirthrop & Co.—Argentine weather still is an important factor and until the drought is relieved the present strength will probably continue.

Clement, Curtis & Co.—Milling wheat the next two months will be a very scarce article. Feel friendly to December and May corn.

Shearson-Hammill—Without some quick change in the Argentine situation prices will advance still further. Advise purchase of corn on any weak spot.

Thomson-McKinnon—The constant taking of all offerings in the pit on depressions by foreigners remains the pronounced market feature.

Bartlett-Frazier—We continue to believe that all recessions should be taken advantage of to conservatively accumulate wheat. Buy corn on any pronounced decline.

STOCK-BOND EXCHANGE

OIL AND MINING STOCKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The knowledge that Charles Sprague and J. K. Turner have issued at Los Angeles a statement concerning the status and prospect of Great Bend revived interest in that stock today, and the price, which advanced from 21 to 23 cents on opening sales, went still higher to 25 cents before the professional profit takers began selling, which brought the price down to 22 cents on a turnover of about 23,000 shares.

Cracker Jack was in heavy demand today at 6 and 7 cents, following an official report that assays from the north drift were higher on a full face of ore tinged with copper, and that retimbering on the shaft will be completed by November 1, at which time lateral work on the 320-foot level will be commenced with only a short distance to go.

Goldfield Consolidated dropped from 62 to 61 cents and Jumbo Extension advanced. The Tonopah issues were neglected.

Union sold off from 63 cents to 61 cents and Sierra Nevada was steady at 24 cents.

HALT REORGANIZATION OF NORTHERN ELECTRIC

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—A halt in the reorganization plans of the Northern Electric company and Northern Electric railway has come with the suit, filed by Edward Bonheim of Sacramento, representing the stockholders of the Northern Electric company, against the other concern. A temporary restraining order has been issued by Judge Cabaniss against the reorganization committee and the Mercantile Trust company, preventing foreclosure of deeds of trust held by the latter, on the charge that the committee is controlled by the bankers.

A long complaint attacking the validity of the Northern Electric company, the parent concern, has been filed. It is sought to prove that it never legally existed.

NORTHERN PACIFIC SHOWS BIG GAINS

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Enormous gains in gross and net earnings are shown in the annual report of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, issued today. Total operating revenues of $75,939,231 is an increase of $12,747,578. Net income after taxes of $20,483,130 is an increase of $6,904,696. Total income of $38,972,448 increased $6,949,995, and surplus, after charges of $25,729,874, represents an increase of $6,907,053. This last item is equal to 10.47 per cent earned on stock, against 7.58 per cent the previous year.

The report was made public at the annual meeting of the stockholders today, at which Crawford Livingston, a St. Paul capitalist, was elected a director to succeed the late William H. Clough, who was chairman of the board. Other retiring directors were all re-elected. The directors will meet soon to elect a new chairman.

OPINION.

Liverpool Cotton Exchange will remain closed on Saturdays until further notice.

The South has been a moderate seller. Local spot people say that Southern hedge selling is undoubtedly restricted by the large margins required in the local market. The difference between contracts and spots yesterday was very favorable to hedge selling and were it not that h

PLAN FIGHT ON VOTE OF SUPERVISORS

Manufacturers' Committee to Ask Board Why Nichols and Parsons Are to Be Dropped From Place on Co. Payroll

Program of Changes Arouses Ire of Chamber of Commerce Men, Who See Politics in the Move to Place Alamedan

A lively protest meeting will occur Thursday night at the Chamber of Commerce, when the manufacturers' committee will discuss the proposed dismissal of Fred Parsons, county installer of exhibits and manufacturing expert of the county exhibit. Once before an attempt by the Board of Supervisors to oust Parsons was stopped by the protests of the committee, which, in retaliation, attacked the position of George Shade, a relative of Chairman D. J. Murphy of the board.

RESOLUTION OFFERED.

The cause of the trouble is a resolution offered yesterday by Supervisor Joseph M. Kelley, dismissing W. D. Nichols, the veteran processor at the exhibit, who has been in the county employ for more than ten years, and promoting Shade in his place, and the dimissing of Parsons, whose place it was proposed to fill with George Croll, an Alameda man, who would be a Kelley appointee. Action was suspended for a week.

"I do not know what is behind this," said Chairman John Phillips of the manufacturers' committee, "but we certainly will find out. I interviewed a member of the board yesterday in regard to the matter. He told me that it had to be done, but he could not tell me why at the time—that he would tell me later. From what I gather it is just a case of redistributing patronage. Supervisor Foss, however, will fight."

Foss, at the time of the last attempt to dismiss Parsons, attacked Murphy's relative and charged that politics ruled the appointments on the exhibit force.

NOT CONSULTED.

The Exposition Commission, in charge of the county exhibit, was not consulted in the change proposed to be made, it was declared today by Harry G. Williams, one of the members. "I know nothing about it," he said, "until Nichols told me. Yes, it has always been customary to take the commission's recommendations heretofore."

Secondhand Man Takes No Chance

Declines to Figure on City Hall Chairs

Morris Eppstein, a Fifth street second-hand dealer, did not even look abashed today when he told Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey that he had given John Glen, alias Archibald Houston, but $2.30 for four dining room chairs, two bureaus, two women's dresses, some bed clothing and a number of other household articles.

"I suppose," said Hennessey, "you would bid about $18.25 for all the furniture in the city hall."

"Well, I dunno," Eppstein replied, seriously, "I would have to look it over first."

Glen had stolen the furnishings from the home of Mrs. Mary Debon, 528 Fifth street. Police Judge Samuels held him to answer to the Superior Court on a charge of burglary today.

S. F. FIRES CAUSE DAMAGE TO STORES

Origin of Blaze in Oil Co. Is Considered Spontaneous Combustion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Two early morning fires, each necessitating the turning in of two alarms, kept San Francisco's fire fighters busy today and caused a loss totalling $15,000.

Flames shooting from the second-story of the Monamobile Oil Company, 562 Howard street, at 6 o'clock, caused the first alarm. The blaze originated from spontaneous combustion from oil soaked rags. It spread to a store at 564 Howard street, occupied by the Monarch Manufacturing Company as a warehouse and storeroom.

The building in which the stores are situated is a concrete structure and fire proof and the flames were soon under control.

Shortly after midnight a fire, also caused by spontaneous combustion, damaged three shops and one home in the heart of the Mission district. The places partly destroyed included those of Schultz and Roche, blacksmiths, 3872 Eighteenth street; Ashworth Auto Repair Company, 2870 Eighteenth street; Faulkenstein Carriage Company, 3874 Eighteenth street, and the residence of Mrs. I. Wilson, 2866 Eighteenth street.

The blaze is supposed to have originated in the carriage shop.

Henry Dieckman, a hoseman, fell from the roof of one of the buildings and suffered a sprained ankle and burns. He was taken to the Central Emergency hospital.

FOR SCHOOL BAND.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 3.—An entertainment for the benefit of the school band in the Auditorium Thursday evening will be the last event at the Grammar School before it closes for the fall vacation, which will last all next week. Upon their return the staff and pupils will find several improvements in effect, including the installation of oil fuel-burning apparatus for heating purposes in place of coal fuel.

CONVENTION CONSIDERS BOMB CASE

State Federation of Labor Is Asked to Raise Fund for Defense of Preparedness Day Parade Suspects at Trial

Billings Sends Comunication Asserting Innocence of Self and Others; Urges Jury Reform and Change of System

EUREKA, Oct. 3.—The San Francisco preparedness parade dynamiting was injected into the annual convention of the State Federation of Labor today when the machinists' union of San Francisco introduced a resolution asking the federation to raise a fund for the defense of the five men and women indicted for murder in connection with the crime.

Simultaneously, Warren K. Billings, convicted of murder, sent a communication to the convention declaring the innocence of himself and his co-defendants. He reviewed his recent trial and urged the convention to take some steps to bring about a change in the present jury system.

A plea for closer co-operation between the American unions and those of Japan, voiced by B. Suzuki, president of the Laborers' Friendly Society of Japan, featured today's session. Suzuki was seated by the convention as a fraternal delegate after opposition on the floor. He delivered a plea for peace.

Mrs. Frances Noel and Professor E. Rubinow of the California Social Insurance Commission, discussed the commission's work.

It is rumored today that Dan Cameron of the pile-drivers' union of San Francisco will oppose Dan Murphy for president of the federation.

The Liberty League of the Federation met yesterday and decided to oppose the two prohibition measures which will be voted upon at the coming election. At the session John A. O'Connell of San Francisco was elected president for the ensuing year. Vice-presidents from the various cities and large towns of California were chosen as follows:

Daniel P. Regan, San Francisco; E. H. Hart, Oakland; James Redenbaugh, Stockton; William C. Eddy, Sacramento; A. B. Hassel, Los Angeles; John Hardicastle, Fresno; Morris Galvin, Marysville; J. Beckel, San Diego; William Zeigler, Eureka; W. Foley, San Rafael; M. F. Moloney, Vallejo, Martinez and Benicia; Charles Arrigony, Santa Rosa; Emil Murl, international board member of the United Brewery Workmen of America, was elected secretary and treasurer of the organization. Joseph A. B. Hassel and William C. Eddy were selected as trustees.

Dr. Marsten's Wife Wins Divorce Decree

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Dixie Marsten was granted a divorce by Superior Judge Flood this morning from Dr. Alfred J. Marsten, a dentist of 2580 Mission street, with the custody of their child and substantial alimony. Mental cruelty was the charge and Dr. Marsten did not press his allegations contained in an answer in which he stated three days after their marriage his wife had told him he was too old.

Telegraphic Tabloids

NEW YORK.—Willie Gray, 10, of Fall River, "borrowed" $20 from his aunt, came here, and had his fling among the white lights by buying candy and movie tickets. Police found him awe-stricken at the Grand Central terminal.

CHICAGO.—A mania to attend wakes as a recreation caused the arrest of Miss Marie Gordon, 18, who had visited two wakes in one evening.

WASHINGTON.—Determined to bring Irene to the altar, Roy Gordon, negro, jilted by Irene Walker, his first love, wed Irene Parker, his second. He asked the court to change the last name on his first license, but this could not be done.

CLEVELAND.—Ambulance calls are now received via wireless in Cleveland. When Director of Utilities Farrell collapsed in the waterworks tunnel here an S. O. S. call had doctors at his side in time to save his life.

NURSES ON TRIP.

The desire to get away for a time from their duties in the operating room at Providence hospital led six surgery nurses of the institution to picnic at Halfmoon bay, following a long automobile ride to the luncheon grounds. The entire day was spent along the coast line, the party returning to Oakland in the evening. The following nurses were in the party: Miss Rita O'Brien, Miss Emma Davis, Miss Irene Dunbar, Miss Clara Beck, Miss Amelia Fisher and Miss Carmen Cisinero.

A TEXAS WONDER

The Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, dissolves gravel, cures diabetes, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women. Regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1.00. One small bottle is two months' treatment, and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Send for sworn testimonials. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. Sold by druggists.—Advt.

Style That Won't Wear Away

ANY MANUFACTURER CAN put into his garments the prominent, the common, the obvious style points of a season's vogue. But it takes designers of genius to embody the minute, deft touches that raise the making of women's coats and suits to the dignity of a fine art.

That Art Is Expressed in the COATS and SUITS We Offer Tomorrow at $19.75 and $25.00

IN THE SUITS—

You'll find the finest examples of tailored, semi-tailored, and novelty models in Broadcloths, Serges, Gabardines and Poplins, fur and velvet trimmed.

Underpriced way under real value by $7.50 to $15 because so bought

IN THE COATS—

You get that true fidelity to style loveliness really New Yorkish. Huge collars that almost bury the eyes, and others less conspicuous are featured just as the new belt and pocket ideas.

There are Broadcloths, Plushes, Tweeds, Wool Velours, Corduroys and Mixtures, every one worth $10 to $15 more.

WAISTS at $5

The smartness in the new conceits has never been reached in waists usually selling at $8.50. Georgettes and Crepe de Chines of high quality.

OAKLAND'S STORE THAT UNDERSELLS

OUR Money-Back Policy Protects YOU

$125,000 NEW FALL MERCHANDISE

was received during the months of Aug. and Sept.—lots more coming every day. Orders for these goods were placed months ago in combination with one of the most powerful buying syndicates on the coast, placed at a time when we had the advantage of naturally lower prices as well as the tremendous pressure of quantity buying. The whole story is, we bought cheap; we sell cheap.

October Proof Sales are inaugurated to prove to the people of Oakland and vicinity that we can and do sell good, clean, staple merchandise cheaper than any other store in Oakland.
